

Arlington Advocate

C. S. PARKER & SON, EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

Devoted to the Local Interests of the Town.

TWO DOLLARS A YEAR. SINGLE COPIES 5 CENTS

Vol. xliii.

ARLINGTON, MASS., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1914.

No. 51.

You will have a MERRY CHRISTMAS

And so will we if you trade in Arlington.

We carry a high class line of goods at low prices. Something for every one in the family. Some of our Xmas goods consists of

Aluminum ware	Safety razors	Barney & Harry Skates
Chafing dishes	Shaving sets	Hockey sticks
Casseroles	Razor straps	Pucks
Carving sets	Pocket knives	Flexible Flyers
Scissors and Shears	Lodge Pins	Register Banks
Neck pins	Scarf Pins	Alarm Clocks
Watch pins	Thermos Bottles	Watches
Rings and Pins	Carpenter's Tools

We extend a special invitation to the ladies to inspect our line and get our prices. Make it your motto to "TRADE IN ARLINGTON."

CUTLER AND RODEN

665 and 189 MASS. AVENUE.

Tel Connection.

D. BUTTRICK

DEALER IN

BUTTER, EGGS AND POULTRY,

667 and 1367 MASS. AVENUE.

If you want the best in our line, telephone.

Orders delivered promptly.

WILLIAM A. MULLER & COMPANY

Insurance

Of Every Description

18 Central Street, Boston

A few reasonable suggestions

Atwood's Mince Meat, full quart Lightning Jar... 35c jar California Ripe Olives... 25c can
New Comb Honey... 25c frame
Weatworth, a real whole wheat biscuit... 10c pkg.
Onelda Asparagus Tips... 30c jar
(In glass—better than the most of the fresh vegetable.)
Readymade Soups... 3 cans for 25 cents
Made by Franco American Food Company.
Calarab Candy Figs... 25c pkg.

SPECIAL FOR SATURDAY

CHOCOLATE MARSHMALLOW FUDGE, 25c lb.

Always sold at from 30 to 35 cents.

YERXA & YERXA

For Christmas

One Dozen GOOD Photographs make twelve GREAT Christmas Gifts. Make the appointment today! It is not too Early.

THE LITCHFIELD STUDIO

"Photos that almost speak"

CHRISTMAS CARDS

STATIONERY

7mart

MISS HOWE—Associates Building.

ABOUT TOWN MATTERS

IN ARLINGTON.

All notices of concerts, lectures, entertainments, etc. to which an admission fee is charged or from which a revenue is to be derived, must be paid for by the line at the regular advertising rates.

—Wetherbee, the jeweler, is showing a most complete line of Christmas and New Year cards and booklets.

—The alarm from Box 14 Monday afternoon, was for a slight fire in an automobile loaded with furniture.

—Get your Xmas packages early for mailing. There will be a big demand on the P. O. Dept.

—Miss Hazel Gray, experienced dressmaker, goes out by the day. Address 30 Bartlett avenue, or phone 988-W.

—For Christmas fountain pens, writing paper. Our line is replete with large and small boxes of Eaton, Crane & Pike Co. Fred A. Smith, Jeweler.

—Miss May M. Donahue has just returned from a week's visit to Holyoke, where she spent a very pleasant Thanksgiving with relatives.

—The topic for the Young People's Christian Endeavor Society of Trinity Baptist church for Sunday, Dec. 6th, will be "Twelve great verses." XII. It is a consecration meeting.

—A sizable "bunch" of High school boys went up to Lexington to witness the "classy" match between Arlington and Lexington High school girls.

—A Teacher Training Class has been started in connection with the Sunday school at Trinity Baptist church. Mrs. Max H. Meyer is the teacher.

—Thursday evening, at the Pleasant Street Cong'l church, Rev. Vincent Ravi, of Cambridge, spoke on "The conditions in southern Italy and Sicily, with reference to immigration."

—The attention of our clubs and societies is called to the Belgian Relief Committee, who will be glad to get in touch with them. Mr. Arthur Birch, chairman, and Mr. John A. Easton, treasurer, may be reached by phone or letter.

—The admirable window displays continue at the Pleasant street market and grocery. At Thanksgiving time we noticed a flock of tiny papier-mache turkeys. Now it is a handsome arrangement of fruits.

—The sixth part in the series of sermons on the Lord's Prayer will be the subject of Dean Wood's sermon at First Baptist church, Sunday evening at seven-thirty. The subject will be "Forgiveness."

—At the regular meeting of Post 36 on the evening of Thursday, Dec. 10, officers for the ensuing year will be chosen. For the past two years the Post has been finely served by Commander Edwin L. Sterling and an efficient corps of other officers.

—"Young People's Day" will be observed at the First Congregational (Unitarian) church next Sunday morning, the service including the reception of new members. The Rev. Frederic Gill will preach on "The Might of Decision." The public is cordially invited, a special invitation being given to young people.

—The past few weeks the Highway Dept. has been busy relaying new water pipes on Court street and Water street. Those on Court street are in and those on Water street will come very near being under cover this week. The new pipe is a six inch one and replaces the old cement lined four-inch pipe.

—Mrs. John F. Scully gave a bridge party to some forty ladies on Monday afternoon, at the home of her father, Mr. Louis H. Mahn, 720 Massachusetts avenue, in honor of Mrs. William Blake Wood, of Hudson, N. Y., who has been visiting relatives and friends during the current week.

—The Bradshaw Missionary Association will meet Monday afternoon, at three o'clock, in the vestry of the Pleasant Street Cong'l church. The meeting will be addressed by Mrs. N. W. Hankemeyer, of New Mexico. Miss Grace Parker will sing and a social hour will follow the meeting.

—The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth A. Emerson, wife of George A. Emerson, was held at her late residence, 59 Broadway, on the morning of Nov. 26th. A high mass of requiem was celebrated in St. Agnes' church by Rev. William J. Fennessey, and there was a large number at the service. Mrs. Emerson was the daughter of Edward P. and Hannah Donahue of Cambridge.

—The gaining the lead in the Boston Pin League by the Arlington Boat Club team last week was a temporary advantage "for one day only," the Lynn team passing both the Colonial and the A. B. C. before the week ended, and coming in as headliner at the close, but the home team still had the highest pinfall. In the Newton League, A. B. C. team is way down, being fifth in a bunch of eight.

—The Arlington Anti-Suffrage League will hold a meeting in Associates Hall, this Friday afternoon, at 3 p. m. Speaker, Dr. Ernest Bernbaum of Harvard University. Subject, "Women Suffrage and War." This is an opportunity to hear a subject of universal interest at the present time, discussed by an able speaker. The meeting is open to members of the League and all others who are interested. Also there will be a report of the Public Interest League by one of the workers. Mrs. Benjamin L. Robinson of Cambridge. The tea will be in charge of Mrs. G. Arthur Swan and her committee.

—We suggest that some one be invited to give a paper before the Historical Society on the topography and how the hill called "Turkey Hill," came to be so named and whether this hill was the one surmounted by the three mammoth pines which could be seen from vessels approaching Boston Harbor. We think the last one of these pines disappeared some twenty-five years ago.

—Tuesday, Dec. 15, Ralph H. Rowse, of 127 Medford street, Arlington, will be ordained into the ministry. The services will be held in the Pleasant Street Cong'l church, where Mr. Rowse is a member, and is now acting assistant to the minister, Rev. S. C. Bushnell. The council

ARLINGTON THEATRE

TO-MORROW (SATURDAY) ALL NEW PICTURES.

Next Monday and Tuesday

"The Trey O'Hearts"

Keystone Comedy - Pathe Weekly.

Next Wednesday and Thursday

"The Million Dollar Mystery"

16th Episode.

Next Friday December 11

SPECIAL MATINEE AT 2.30

MARY PICKFORD

IN

THE EAGLE'S MATE

5 PARTS.

Regular Prices.

Christmas and New Year

CARDS AND BOOKLETS.

Large stock to select from DO IT NOW. Watches Jewelry, Cut Glass, Fancy China, Pictures, Skates. Edison Diamond Point Phonographs, Big Ben Clocks.

WETHERBEE THE JEWELER

480 Massachusetts Ave.,

Arlington.

TELEPHONE 1134-W.

ARLINGTON FIVE CENTS SAVINGS BANK

INCORPORATED 1860

BUSINESS HOURS

9 A. M. to 12 M., - - 1 to 3 P. M.

EXCEPT SATURDAYS.

SATURDAYS

9 A. M. to 12 M., - - 7 to 9 P. M.

QUICK HEAT

FOR THE CHILLY ROOM.

A GAS ROOM-HEATER

WILL DO THE TRICK.

WE HAVE THEM

ALL SIZES

ALL PRICES

PLAIN HEATERS

GAS LOGS, GAS STEAM RADIATORS

CHEERY OPEN FIREPLACES

Arlington Gas Light Co.

606 MASS. AVE.

TEL. ARL. 412-W

18 July 1896

ARLINGTON, MASS.

Arlington Taxi Service

AUTOS DAY AND NIGHT

Telephone, Arlington 1322-M.

FRANK J. PRIEST, PROPRIETOR.

but Mrs. Wood has been entertained the current week by Mrs. Hornblower and Mrs. E. P. Stikney. Rosamond and Winthrop Wood, both of whom are attending "prep" schools,—the former at Bradford and the latter at Concord, N. H.,—also spent Thanksgiving at the Hornblowers.

—Christmas cards, booklets all kinds, water colors pictures, Dennison seals, tags, crepe paper. Pencil boxes, toys. Fred A. Smith, Jeweler.

—An inspection of the poles bearing wires in town has been going on since the accident on Broadway, and it has been found that in many places poles are equally decayed.

—Mrs. Alfred Myers, 19 Lombard road, will continue to receive clothing for the Belgians, on the behalf of the Social Service Dept. of the Woman's Club, up to Saturday next, Dec. 12.

—Tickets for the A. B. C. promenade concert and dance are a dollar for the floor, 75 cents for the first row in the balcony and 50 cents for all others. The tickets are necessarily limited and should be secured at once. They can be had of club members.

—The five men handling the big spheres as the A. B. C. team in the Newton League, put up a strong game on Wednesday evening, beating North Gate team 25-6 to 24-11. Three bowled well above the 500 line (Homer had 550), and the two others were close to the half century mark.

—A supper was held in the vestry of Trinity Baptist church under the auspices of the Dorcas Society, Thursday evening, Dec. 3d. The committee in charge of the supper was Mrs. J. C. Fletcher (chairman), Mrs. Frank Durling, Mrs. Ada Howard, Mrs. Geo. Easter, Mrs. Robert Watson.

—At the business meeting of the Warren L. Teel Class, held Tuesday evening, Dec. 1st, the following were elected to office for the coming year,—the present president, Mrs. Chas. W. Lovrien, was re-elected by a unanimous vote. The other officers are:—

Vice-pres., Mrs. Alfred Woodward; recording secretary, Miss Est. Miller; financial sec'y, Ethel Hackett; treasurer, Miss Bertha Crosby; teacher, Miss Anna E. Kirby; ass't teacher, Mrs. W. I. Middleton; chairman of committees,—membership, Mrs. Julia Miller; devotional, Mrs. Ada Howard; social, Miss Isabelle Durling; visiting, Mrs. M. H. Meyer.

—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Durling gave a dinner party of eight covers on Thanksgiving day to relatives. In the evening there was a whist, the highest score being made by Mr. M. Ernest Moore. The Durlings have recently returned from Hampton, N. H., Mr. Durling being greatly improved in health.

—Mr. John Bisbee told in a most interesting way of his experiences for a year at Dr. Grenfell's mission in Labrador, at the Christian Endeavor meeting at First Baptist church last Sunday evening. Mr. Bisbee has a pleasant personality and is an interesting speaker while his subject matter is one which the churches are keen to hear about.

—Attendance and interest at the Sunday evening services at the First Baptist church are steadily growing. On Sunday next Dean Wood will preach on "The Divine Forgiveness," the sixth in the series on "The Perfect Prayer." Mrs. Lucie Tucker-Blake will again be the soloist. The choir will sing the advent anthem, "Prepare Ye the Way of the Lord."

—The police have been asked to try and locate one Marion Story, of 10 Lowell street place, who is reported to have disappeared. Nov. 5th, from the Chimney Corner Tea House, No. 21 Linnean street, Cambridge, where she was employed. The girl is described as a blonde, 16 years old, rosy cheeks, and wore a brown suit. She is large for her age. Her parents are much concerned over her disappearance.

—Although a suicide was at first suspected, following the discovery late Saturday afternoon of an overcoat and cap on the bank of the Arlington Heights reservoir, near the spot where a woman committed suicide last summer, the Arlington police believe now that such was not the case, as examination shows that nowhere about the edge of the reservoir is the ice that covers the surface broken. So far as the police know, no one is missing in Arlington. The overcoat was a black one, and the hat a black and white golf cap.

—There were two breaks reported to the police on Thanksgiving day and the work in both cases looks like that of amateurs. The home of W. O. Witcher, 79 Broadway, was entered by means of a rear window which had been left open, and evidently it was money that the burglars were after, for all that was missed was $5. The home of John F. McCarthy, 18 Palmer street, was entered in the early evening by way of the second story. In this house $2 in money was missing. The arrival home of Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy frightened the burglars away, they getting out by means of the pantry window.

—Mrs. C. W. Tilton, of 22 Oakland avenue, Arlington Heights, was the organist at the Vesper service, Sunday afternoon, at the First Parish (Unitarian) church. The attendance was the largest that has gathered at these services since they were inaugurated, with the exception of when Mr. Wm. E. Wood, the veteran organist of the town, gave a recital. Mrs. Tilton gave a most enjoyable program from such famous authors as Arthur Foot, Handel and others. She is the organist at the First Unitarian church at Medford, where she had been engaged for several years.

—The seating capacity of Trinity Baptist church was taxed to its utmost limit last Sunday evening. The pastor, Rev. Lewis A. Walker, gave the fourth in a very interesting series of talks on the "Nations at War," France being the subject.

Continued on 8th page.

Points for Mothers

Teach Children Consideration.

Amiability in one of its branches means kindness not alone to each other, but to the animal and vegetable world. You will see a tiny child weeping over a broken flower, the tender little heart grieved that its pretty favorite is crushed. Why should we not foster the idea and teach him to respect the flowers so lavishly given us by a generous Creator? We can easily destroy; we are powerless to create. The child trained to curb a fancy for willful destruction will grow into a man wise enough to understand and appreciate the lessons taught by the world of nature.

Kindness to animals should be insisted on and a child made to understand that pussy suffers pain when small fingers are poked in her eyes and a fly is tortured when her wings are pulled off. Some people say and perhaps erroneously believe that boys are naturally cruel. This is quite wrong. Girls accept facts; boys look for proof. They are not content to know a watch "goes," they try to discover why it goes.

As concerns animals, it is only a matter of training. If a boy from his earliest childhood has been taught to be kind to animals he will never take delight in teasing them. In these days, when vivisection is so largely discussed, it would be out of place to revert to the subject here, but it might be said that boys trained to be kind will when men contenance no unnecessary cruelty in the operations on animals requisite for medical or surgical research.

Nice School Lunches.

When putting up school lunches for the children wrap each article of food separately, using oiled paper and little jars saved for the purpose. Cut whole wheat bread, varying with white bread, in long strips and place butter between. Stuff a stalk of celery with minced chicken or meat moistened with gravy. Add a cookie or two, a bottle of milk and an apple or banana to "top off" with, and you will have a lunch which any child of school age will like.

For variety cut the bread in triangles, place chopped nuts between and wrap in oiled paper.

Add a jar of custard and an orange. Sandwiches made of white bread with a filling of chopped dates or figs are delicious and healthful. Prunes cooked until tender, pitted and stuffed with chopped nuts are excellent.

The Home Atmosphere.

An unhappy home is an unhealthy nursery. The nervous, tired out mother keeps the atmosphere charged with disorder and discontent. Youth is so happy under congenial conditions that nothing should interfere with a normal, joyous childhood.

Children suffer more than adults know. They nurse their little griefs and cry themselves to sleep and become quite as miserable over aching nerves as do their parents. A home is of no importance unless the family finds happiness and laughter and comfort there.

One can eat and sleep anywhere. Too many women bank on the importance of removing dust from the piano and having the silver polished and forget that whether everybody is happy or not is the great, paramount question of human affairs.

Children's Picture Plates.

The heart of any child would be gladdened by a sight of the cunning little plates and cups and mugs of porcelain decorated with barnyard fowl. These would make nice Christmas gifts for them.

For special use in the nursery are the dish sets decorated with blue birds. These, however, are not as new as the doll dishes.

A way of beguiling a convalescent child into taking his food is by serving it in little dishes which show him his favorite designs. There are various jolly patterns and one can fancy a sick child wondering which will be on his plate, as the time for each meal comes around.

The Dress Up Box.

"My little girl loves to dress up and so do her little playmates," says one wise mother. "To save my waist clothes I have given her several gowns and skirts, with ribbons and discarded hats. She watches and begs all such finery from other members of the family also. I have given her a large chest in the attic, which is known as the 'dress up box,' and the rule is that everything must be returned to it after play. My friends are interested and save German favors like hats, caps and bows, even muffs of tissue paper, and the collection gives many hours of pleasure to the neighborhood girls, and boys too."

Fruit Dessert For Children.

One of the best fruit desserts for children is for a quart of fresh fruit stewed with three-quarters of a cupful of water and one cupful of sugar for fifteen minutes. Now butter slices of bread and place in a pudding dish. Pour the stewed fruit over the bread and bake in a cool oven. When cool place on ice and serve with milk or whipped cream.

BOWSER DIDN'T RESPOND

Because Mrs. Bowser Butted In With History.

By M. QUAD.

Copyright, 1914, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

Mr. Bowser's face had a new look on it when he came home to dinner the other evening—a combination of hope, triumph and perplexity, and Mrs. Bowser was puzzled over it. He was ill at ease all through dinner, and it was a quarter of an hour after the meal had been concluded before he said:

"I might as well tell you now that I am going to the club tomorrow night. It will be an anniversary gathering and a banquet."

"Well, I hope you'll have a good time," replied Mrs. Bowser.

"Yes, I expect to. At the banquet they will have toasts, you know. They've got me down to respond to one."

"Why, I'm pleased at that. What is the toast?"

"It's 'Our Country.' I've been writing something today for a response, and I think I've got a rather neat thing. I don't expect to bring down the house, of course, but perhaps I'll size up with the rest of 'em. I shall be a little nervous, I suppose, but I've got to go through with it just the same."

"I am sure you will do splendidly," said Mrs. Bowser in confident tones.

"I want to hear it, and it will be well for you to see if you have it committed to memory. Just stand there as if you had risen from the banquet table and make the response."

"OUR COUNTRY" HE BEGAN.

Mr. Bowser drew himself up, cleared his throat, and, after caressing his ear a few seconds, he began:

"Our country! Little did Christopher Columbus imagine when he set sail from the shores of Spain in 1504 what would be the result!"

"Wait, dear," interrupted Mrs. Bowser. "You are first supposed to bow to the president of the club, aren't you?"

"Certainly, and I bowed. I also carried my hand to my heart as I bowed."

"But you didn't, dear. You raised your left hand to your right side."

"I deny it, but we'll let that go."

"And Columbus didn't set sail in the year 1504, but in 1492. You must have the date correct."

"What! You say it was in 1492?" exclaimed Mr. Bowser as the strawberry color rushed to his face.

"Of course it was!"

"I don't believe it, but I will look it up later on. Well, what I'm going to say is that a band of pilgrims came over here."

"That's right."

"And they landed in Boston."

"Not Boston, my dear, but at Plymouth Rock. It is so long since you read history that—"

"I say it was Boston!" shouted Mr. Bowser as he danced about. "Woman, when you set out to correct my dates you are going altogether too far, and I want no more of it! If they landed at Plymouth Rock how came they to throw the tea overboard in Boston harbor?"

"But it wasn't the pilgrims who threw the tea overboard," gently insisted Mrs. Bowser. "As I said, you are a little rusty on history. Don't you remember?"

"I remember that it was the pilgrims! Let any man on the face of the earth tell me it wasn't and I'll kick him out of his boots! Do you think I'd got up before my club and say it was the pilgrims if it wasn't? You'd better spend the night with your nose in a history!"

"Have you got the Declaration of Independence in your reply?" asked Mrs. Bowser after a while.

"Of course I have," he growled in reply. "That's what I depend upon for a hit, but I suppose you'll find some fault with it. I go on to say that a little band of patriots, headed by General Washington, gathered in Philadelphia and put their names to a document which created a new nation. You'll deny it, won't you?"

"But you see Washington didn't sign the Declaration?"

"What! What! Dare you sit there and make such a bare-faced statement as that? Any school child will tell you that Washington signed first of all!"

"Just wait. I will get down a history of the United States and prove that you are wrong. You have got John Hancock and George Washington mixed up."

"Never, never, Mrs. Bowser! You needn't trouble yourself about getting down a history. I am history enough. What I don't know about the United States no history can teach me! As to mixing up George Washington and John Hancock, do you take me for an idiot? Woman, you are maliciously determined to pick a fuss with me, and I warn you to pause!"

"What else do you say about 'Our Country'?" asked Mrs. Bowser in her placid way.

"I speak about its patriotism," he replied after a time; "how we fought England and Germany and Mexico to the last ditch and gained our independence as a nation. Then I go on to say—"

"But you don't say that we fought Germany?" interrupted Mrs. Bowser.

"Of course I do. Why not? Perhaps you'll say I'm mixed up on that?"

"You surely are, Mr. Bowser. We never had a war with Germany. History will tell you!"

"History, history!" he shouted as he waved his arms about and looked around for something to kick at.

"What do I care about history? When I say we had a war with Germany that settles it, don't it? I can now realize my husbands sometimes murder their wives in cold blood."

"When was this war?"

"In 1775, of course."

"But that was the breaking out of the Revolutionary war, and we were fighting England alone. If you are going to speak before your club you must have your facts and dates right or—"

"Or what?" he demanded as she hesitated. "Woman, I am put down on the program to respond to the toast of 'Our Country.' I spend a day looking up my facts. I get them down fine. I come home and ask you for your encouragement, and I am hit with a fence rail a dozen times over. It is envy, jealousy, malice. You want me to fail. It would break your heart to hear me succeed."

"Why, Mr. Bowser, how can you?"

"That will do, woman; that will do! You have accomplished your object. The club be hanged! Our country be hanged! I shall not respond. Instead of going to the banquet and winning applause I will go out on the street and rip and holler and kick three men!"

"But I said—"

"Yes, you said. You need say no more. I am going to the library to look over certain papers and arrange them for my lawyer, and should anybody call you can say that George Washington, John Hancock, our country and your victim of a husband are all tied up in a knot and can't be seen before tomorrow."

Linear Measure.

The Frenchman and the American had gone a considerable distance in animated discussion concerning the merits of their respective countries. Neither would make any concessions.

"Of course," firmly said the Frenchman in desperation, "you will concede that there is only one Eiffel tower and that we have it."

"Certainly," agreed the American. "and I am mighty glad, for it has given us a means for measuring our skyscrapers. We now say in New York that a building is two Eiffels high or three or four, as the case may be."—New York Post.

Absentminded.

I went for a music lesson the other day and carried a basket with me, as I intended to do some shopping on the way home. When I had finished my lesson I left, but hadn't gone far when I suddenly remembered my basket. So back I went and asked the maid who opened the door to give it to me. I did feel somewhat ridiculous when she asked me if I had brought two baskets, as I had one already hanging on my arm.—London Telegraph.

A Different Ending.

"You know Wollat, of course?"

"Yes."

"Forty years ago he lost a watch on his father's farm, and today?"

"Yes, yes."

"He's still cussing about it."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Frank Admission.

"Do you regard politics in your state at all as a square deal?"

"No," replied Senator Sorghum. "It is rather a question of who gets lost in the shuffle."—Washington Star.

What He Paid.

"Did the fellow pay any attention when you told him you had a bill to collect?"

"Yes, sir, but that's all he did pay."—Baltimore American.

Hard Luck.

"Haven't seen you since we left college. I hope fortune has smiled on you, old chap."

"Yes, sarcastically."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Meaningless.

Hollow the poetry words they pour! How pink the fulsome clat! Often you're asked clean but the door Though "Welcome," marks the mat.

And then again the wife oft hurls Teapot at husband's curls And breaks the milk on the wall Which red is called Ores Our Home.

How oft men pour a bumper bears And keels to reach his thirst With pizen holes though he wears A badge with "Safety First!"

Yes, words mean nothing at all. How oft men pour his brow And sits and lolls while on the wall A sign reads "Don't Now!"

—Detroit Free Press.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

PROBATE COURT.

MIDDLESEX, SS.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of HARRIET F. KING, late of Arlington, in said County, deceased, intestate.

Whereas a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Kate P. Foster, of Arlington, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on her bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of December, A. D. 1914, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the ARLINGTON ADVOCATE, a newspaper published in Arlington, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, CHARLES J. MCINTIRE, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this thirteenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

11nov3w

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

PROBATE COURT.

MIDDLESEX, SS.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of ABIE E. HUNT, late of Lexington, in said County, deceased, intestate.

Whereas a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Mabel E. Kershaw, of Lexington, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on her bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of December, A. D. 1914, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the LEXINGTON MINUTE-MAN, a newspaper published in said County, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, CHARLES J. MCINTIRE, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this sixteenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

11nov3w

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

PROBATE COURT.

MIDDLESEX, SS.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of ABIE E. HUNT, late of Lexington, in said County, deceased, intestate.

Whereas a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Mabel E. Kershaw, of Lexington, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on her bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of December, A. D. 1914, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the LEXINGTON MINUTE-MAN, a newspaper published in said County, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, CHARLES J. MCINTIRE, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this sixteenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

11nov3w

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

PROBATE COURT.

MIDDLESEX, SS.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of ABIE E. HUNT, late of Lexington, in said County, deceased, intestate.

Whereas a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Mabel E. Kershaw, of Lexington, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on her bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of December, A. D. 1914, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the LEXINGTON MINUTE-MAN, a newspaper published in said County, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, CHARLES J. MCINTIRE, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this sixteenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

11nov3w

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

PROBATE COURT.

MIDDLESEX, SS.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of ABIE E. HUNT, late of Lexington, in said County, deceased, intestate.

Whereas a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Mabel E. Kershaw, of Lexington, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on her bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of December, A. D. 1914, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the LEXINGTON MINUTE-MAN, a newspaper published in said County, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, CHARLES J. MCINTIRE, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this sixteenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

11nov3w

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

PROBATE COURT.

MIDDLESEX, SS.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of ABIE E. HUNT, late of Lexington, in said County, deceased, intestate.

Whereas a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Mabel E. Kershaw, of Lexington, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on her bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of December, A. D. 1914, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the LEXINGTON MINUTE-MAN, a newspaper published in said County, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, CHARLES J. MCINTIRE, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this sixteenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

11nov3w

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

PROBATE COURT.

MIDDLESEX, SS.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of ABIE E. HUNT, late of Lexington, in said County, deceased, intestate.

Whereas a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Mabel E. Kershaw, of Lexington, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on her bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventh day of December, A. D. 1914, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the LEXINGTON MINUTE-MAN, a newspaper published in said County, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, CHARLES J. MCINTIRE, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this sixteenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

11nov3w

Order Your JOB PRINTING FROM

C. S. PARKER & SON

446 Mass. Ave.

Prompt Delivery
Nice Type
Fair Prices

FOR ALL KINDS OF JOB PRINTING

Boston Elevated Railway Co. SURFACE LINES. TIME TABLE.

Subject to change without notice.

Arlington Heights to Harvard Square, 4:05, 4:35, 5:04, a. m., 10, 6, 7, 8 and 5 minutes to 7:02 a. m. 3 and 5 minutes to 9:14 a. m., 7 and 5 minutes to 11:29, 11:44, 11:59 p. m., 12:14 a. m. SUNDAY—5:14, 5:29, 5:44, 5:59, 6:14 a. m., each 15 minutes to 7:29 a. m., each 7 and 8 minutes to 9:20 a. m., 6 minutes to 11:14 p. m., 11:22, 11:39, 11:59 p. m., 12:14 a. m.

NIGHT SERVICE—To Adams Sq. by connection at Harvard Sq., 12:35, 1:06, 1:36, 2:06, 3:36, 4:37 a. m. Leave (Scollay Sq. subway 1:00 a. m.) Adams Sq., 1:06, 1:36, 2:06, 2:36, 3:36, 4:36 a. m.

Arlington Heights to Sullivan Sq. Terminal Via Broadway—5:16, 5:31, 5:46 a. m., each 7 and 15 minutes to 6:46 a. m., each 15 minutes to 8:01, every 7 and 8 minutes to 4:01 p. m., each 15 minutes to 7:46 8:00, each 15 minutes to 11:31, 11:46, 11:59 p. m., 12:14 a. m. SUNDAY—5:36, 5:51, 6:06 a. m., each 15 minutes to 7:26 a. m., each 7 and 8 minutes to 9:20 a. m., 6 minutes to 11:14 p. m., 11:22, 11:39, 11:59 p. m., 12:14 a. m.

Arlington Heights to Sullivan Sq. via Medford Avenue—5:14, 5:27, 5:41, 5:54, 6:07, 6:20, 6:33, 6:46, 6:59, 7:12, 7:25, 7:38, 7:51, 8:04, 8:17, 8:30, 8:43, 8:56, 9:09, 9:22, 9:35, 9

FREMONT AND KIT CARSON.

Pen Pictures of the Pathfinder and the Famous Scout.

In "Kit Carson Days," by Edward L. Sabin, we get this glimpse of the personal appearance of Carson and Fremont when the two daring spirits first met:

"In June, 1842, came the fateful meeting of the trapper scout, already known throughout the west, and the Pathfinder whose great fame was still to come.

"The two men were opposites. Carson was Scotch-Irish, gray blue eyed, sandy complexioned (under his tan), light haired, rather flat featured, grumpy, but so quiet and ordinary both in appearance and manner that few not knowing his name would bestow upon him more than a passing glance. Fremont was French, flashing blue eyes, olive white complexion, thick brown hair, features regular and oval, disposition sensitive, quick, eager and indomitable. Few would forget him.

"Fremont was a scholar of both American and continental accomplishments. At this time Carson could not read nor write even his own name, and his speech even in 1866 was of patois wherein mingled Mexican, Indian and many a frontier English 'thar,' 'fout,' 'massacred,' 'pore,' etc. But he spoke in more languages than did Fremont himself, not only being fluent in English, French, Spanish and several Indian tongues, all acquired orally, but also being well conversant with the sign language of red man and of trail."

Of this meeting on the Missouri, out from St. Louis, came comradeship first and a friendship that never ceased. In California and in the Mexican struggle the staunchness of both men and their loyalty to the flag were well tested.

FEMINE BEAUTY.

Maturity Has a Charm Greater Than That of "Sweet Sixteen."

There is a beauty quite apart from youth—the beauty of the mature woman. Some there are who maintain that beauty does not reach the zenith under the age of thirty-five or forty. In a measure this is borne out by the events of the antique past, which may likewise be parallel with instances of our own day.

Helen of Troy appeared on the scene at the age of forty. Cleopatra was past thirty when she met Antony. Aspasia, married to Pericles when she was thirty-six, was a figure brilliant in her world for thirty years after. When Diane de Poitiers was past thirty-six she won the heart of Henry II, and he was but half her age.

Anne of Austria was thirty-eight when described as the most beautiful woman of Europe. Mile. Mar was heralded as the greatest of beauties at forty-five, and Mme. Recamier was at her best between the ages of thirty-five and fifty. Mme. de Maintenon was forty-three when united to Louis, and Catherine of Russia was thirty-three when she took her seat on the throne which she occupied for thirty-five years.

All these women were world famed for their beauty and gave the lie direct to that toothless old saw that buzzes the power of "sweet sixteen." The dew of youth and complexion of roses, it must be admitted, sometimes combine in a face that is unimaging, irresponsible, utterly lacking in the expression which goes to the making of a perfectly molded visage.—Bohemian.

Mighty Handy.

Some negroes are insatiable "finers," and their favorite organizations are those which assure an ostentatious funeral.

A mistress was remonstrating with her servant about belonging to one of them.

"Bonnie, don't you think it is mighty foolish to pay the 'Friends and True Mourners' society' 25 cents every month?"

"Now'm, Miss Ma'y, I don't. You see, dee ain't like some of de cleties; dee acts liberal, and don't skimp an' nothin'. Dee gives you de finest kind of coffin, en makes a way for ev'body to git to your burial. En den, 'sides dat, dee gives you $30 at the grave, en you know $30 comes in mighty handy."—New York Post.

The Great Experiences.

It is impossible to overstate the authority, the overwhelming validity, of the great experiences of life. Death, love, birth, work, creative effort, pain—above all, pain—each adds something definite, precious, enduring, to the soul's stock of treasure. These are the things that shall not be taken away. They are the bricks we build into the house of life. They are the foundation stones of our eternal city.—Cornelia A. P. Corner in Atlantic Monthly.

Tailor Made.

"My papa has a tailor made watch," said little Winifred proudly.

"Indeed!" exclaimed the visitor. "I never heard of a tailor made watch before."

"Well," explained the little miss, "he got it with a ten dollar suit of clothes, anyway."—Chicago News.

Within the Truth.

Victim—Look here! You said the house was only a stone's throw from the station. It's fully half a mile. Agent—Well, I've seen a blast from a quarry throw stones twice that distance many a time. —Boston Transcript.

Awaiting the Outcome.

"The folks at our hotel are greatly interested in a problem."

"What is it?"

"An irresistible blond has just met an immovable bachelor."—Judge.

"SAFETY FIRST"

Deposit your money with us.
Your deposit is secured by

Capital	$125,000
Stockholders Liability	125,000
Surplus and Undivided Profits	20,500
	$270,000

and safeguarded by a strong
Board of Directors who direct

MENOTOMY TRUST COMPANY,

626 Massachusetts Ave., Arlington, Mass.

Banking Hours: 8 a. m. to 3 p. m., Daily. Wednesday and Saturday 7 to 8.30 p. m.

ESTABLISHED 1841
J. Henry Hartwell & Son,
Undertakers,

Will attend to all duties connected with our profession.

A Lady Attendant, when desired.

AUTOMOBILE HEARSE.

Office and Warerooms, 4 Medford St., ARLINGTON, MASS.

Telephone Connection.—Office 137-W; Res. 137-B. Residence and Night Call.—793 Mass. Avenue

Branch Office, 55 PARK AVE., Arlington Hts.

ARLINGTON VARIETY STORE

N. J. HARDY Bakery Supplies,

Small Wares, Groceries—Candy, Ice Cold Tonic

Moxies and Grape Juice.

Open Daily 6 a. m. to 10 p. m. 458 Mass. Avenue

GET "COAL" BEFORE YOU GET COLD.

ARLINGTON COAL COMPANY.

COAL AND WOOD. HAY AND GRAIN. LIME AND CEMENT.

Have You Ever Compared

the sweet and nutty flavor of our bread?—a little better than mother used to make. USE IT!

NO BETTER ICE CREAM and SHERBET ever offered to you, pure and sweet. Try it for your Sunday Dinner.

CATERING

FOR

Weddings, Class Days, Etc., Etc.

N. J. HARDY BAKER AND CATERER
Associates Building, Arlington

TELEPHONE 112

REPAIRING ESTIMATES FURNISHED

GEORGE A. BRYSON

Electrical Contractor

Telephone 353-W 20 Franklin St., Arlington, Mass

SOPHIA NORTH.

Scalp Specialist.

10 PLEASANT STREET, ARLINGTON.
All scalp diseases treated by appointment. Shampooing, either Ladies or Gentlemen. Telephone Arlington 810. Sept 13/14

A. L. NOURSE

MANICURE PARLOR

Chiropody - Shampooing

Combing made in switches.

Rooms 32-34, Post Office Block,

ARLINGTON - MASS.

Telephone 786-W.

HARDWOOD FLOORS

Interior Finish

GEO. W. KENT & CO.

Office, 669 Mass. Avenue,

Residence, 16 Harvard St., Arlington, Mass

S. HARRISON

TEACHER OF PIANO, ORGAN AND HARMONY.

Lectures and Lecture Recitals (Circular at Request). Modern Harmony by Correspondence. Sight-singing, Coaching, Musicales, Concerts, etc.

STUDIOS: 8 Bartlett Ave., Arlington 30 Steinert Hall, Boston.

PICTURE FRAMES.

The large variety of frames of our own designs and adaptations offer an excellent opportunity to select an appropriate frame for your picture at an expense no greater than for ordinary commonplace things.

FOSTER BROTHERS,

Manufacturers and Retailers,
4 PARK SQUARE, BOSTON.

MARY S. PARKHURST,

SCALP SPECIALIST

HAIRDRESSER - MANICURIST

Fine hair work and Chiropody. Up-to-date methods. Hair remover, creams and lotions.

661 Mass. Avenue, Arlington

Telephone 364-M.

ARLINGTON CHURCHES, SOCIETIES, Etc.

ARLINGTON CO-OPERATIVE BANK

Warren A. Peirce, pres.; Chas. H. Stevens, sec. O. W. Whittemore, treasurer. Meets in bank every first National Bank, first Tuesday in each month at 10 p. m. Money offered at auction at 8 a. m. to 10 p. m. Saturdays 9 a. m. to 12 m. 7 to 9 p. m.

ARLINGTON FIVE-CENT SAVINGS BANK

Bank Building, corner Massachusetts Avenue and Pleasant Street. George Hill, president; Wilson J. Clark, Jr., treasurer; Edward S. Feisenden, Asst. Treasurer. Open daily except Saturdays 9 a. m. to 12 m. 1 to 3 p. m. Saturdays 9 a. m. to 12 m. 7 to 9 p. m.

ARLINGTON BOAT CLUB

Meets first Monday in each month at Club House on margin of Spy Pond. Admission fee $10; annual dues, $1.

ARLINGTON FINANCE CLUB

Meets by invitation fourth Tuesday in each month A. O. H., DIV. 52.

Meets in Hibernian Hall, corner Myrtle and Chestnut streets, first and third Tuesdays of each month at 7:30 p. m.

A. O. U. W., CIRCLE LODGE NO. 77

Meets second and fourth Wednesdays of each month in Crescent Hall, A. H., at 8 p. m.

JAMES RAY COLE LODGE, NO. 160

Knights of Pythias. Meets first and third Tuesdays in I. O. O. F. Hall.

MENOTOMY TRUST CO.

James A. Bailey, Jr., president; John A. Easton, Treas. Corner Massachusetts Avenue and Pleasant St. Open daily from 8 a. m. to 3 p. m., on Wednesday and Saturday evenings from 7 to 9 p. m.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Hose No. 1, on Park Avenue; Hose No. 2, on Massachusetts Avenue; Menotomy Hook and Ladder; Hose No. 3, on Broadway; Chemical A, on Massachusetts Avenue.

F. A. M., HIRAM LODGE

Meets in Masonic Hall, corner Massachusetts Avenue and Medford Street, Thursday on or before the full moon.

FORESTERS OF AMERICA

Court Pride, of Arlington. Meets in Adolphus Hall and at 4th Monday of each month at 8 o'clock.

M. C. O. F., meets in A. O. H. Hall, and last Thursdays at eight o'clock P. M.

I. O. O. F., BETHEL LODGE, NO. 22

Meets in Odd Fellows' Hall, Bank Building, every Wednesday evening, at 8.

IDA F. BUTLER REBEKAH LODGE NO. 158

Meets first and third Monday evenings of each month in Bethel Lodge Room.

MENOTOMY R. A. CHAPTER

Meets third Tuesday of each month in Masonic Hall.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS, NO. 109

Meets second and fourth Tuesdays of each month in K. of C. Hall, 9 Myrtle Street.

ST. AGNES COURT, NO. 14

Daughters of Isabella. Meets in K. of C. Hall, Myrtle Street, second and fourth Mondays.

ROBBINS PUBLIC LIBRARY

Open daily, except Sundays, from 10:30 a. m. to 6:30 p. m. Children's Room, 10:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. Sunday, for readers only, 9:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. Closed on Holidays.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS BRANCH

Open Tuesdays and Saturdays from 10:30 a. m. to 7:30 p. m. Thursdays, 3 to 6:30 p. m.

Menotomy Council No. 178. Meets first and third Fridays of each month in G. A. R. Hall, 370 Mass. Ave. at 8 p. m.

ARLINGTON CIVIC LEAGUE

Meets in Crescent Hall, (Arlington Heights) fourth Tuesday of each month.

TOWN OFFICERS.

Selectmen meet at their office in Town Hall on the 1st and 4th Mondays with the Joint Board. On the 1st week they meet on Saturday evening.

Board of Public Works, each Monday evening at 7:30. Joint Board, and 4th Mondays at 7:30.

Town Clerk and Treasurer, office hours, 9 a. m. to 12 m. 1 to 5 p. m. Office hours, Mondays, 7 to 9 p. m. Saturdays, 9 a. m. to 12 m. only.

Board of Health, last Friday of each month at 7:30 p. m.

Engineers Fire Department, Saturday before last Monday, each month.

School Committee, third Tuesday evening monthly. Trustees of Cemetery, on call of chairman.

Board of Assessors, every Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

WOMEN'S C. T. UNION

Meets in Chapel of First Baptist Church, first Friday in each month.

UNITED ORDER I. O. L.

Golden Rule Lodge No. 51. Meets in G. A. R. Hall the first and third Tuesday evenings in each month.

BAY STATE L. O. L. NO. 418

Meets in Grand Army Hall, second and fourth Monday in each month.

U. O. G. C.

Paul Revere Commandery No. 831 meets 1st and 3rd Monday of each month, 8 p. m., in Knights of Columbus Hall.

EAST ARLINGTON IMPROVEMENT ASS'N

Meets in Crosby school hall (Winter street) second Monday of each month.

Churches and church services.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL PARISH.

(Unitarian.)

Corner Massachusetts Avenue and Pleasant Street, Rev. Frederic Gill, minister, 15 Devereux St. Sunday Services: Church 10:40 a. m.; Sunday school, Primary Dept. 10:40. Main school 12 M., except July and August. Afternoon services, November to March: Vespers, second Sundays 4:30. Organ Vespers, last Sundays at 5.

ARLINGTON FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Massachusetts Avenue corner West Street. Sunday services, 10:40 a. m.; Sunday school at noon; 1:30 p. m. P. S. C. E. meeting at 6:45 p. m. Rev. Nathan E. Wood, D. D., minister.

ORTHODOX CONGREGATIONAL

Corner Pleasant and Maple streets. Rev. Samuel C. Bushnell, pastor. Sunday services at 10:45 a. m. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:30 p. m.; Sunday school at noon, except during July and August; Friday evenings, 7:30. Social service in vestry.

FIRST UNIVERSALIST

Massachusetts Avenue, opposite Academy Street, Rev. Frank Lincoln Maseck, pastor, 373 Mass. Ave. Sunday services in the morning at 10:45; Sunday school at noon, except during July and August. Y. P. Union at 7:00 p. m.

ST. AGNES, ROMAN CATHOLIC

Corner Medford and Chestnut streets. Rev. Matthew J. Flaherty, pastor; Rev. W. J. Fenemore, assistant. Paragonage, 24 Medford street, near Church. Masses at 8:15, 9:30, High Mass at 10:45; Sunday school at 9:30. Vespers at 4 p. m. Boys Sodality at 8; Girls Sodality at 3 p. m.

ST. JAMES, ROMAN CATHOLIC

Appleton Street, corner of Acton. Rev. David R. Heffernan, pastor. Rev. John J. Mahoney, assistant. Masses at 8:30, 9:30; high mass at 10:30. Sunday school after 8:30 mass. Residence, Appleton Street.

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL

Corner Academy and Maple streets. Rev. Charles Taber Hall, Rector. Holy Communion 8 a. m. (except 1st Sunday in month). Holy Communion 10:45 a. m. 1st Sunday in the month, other Sundays Morning Prayer. Evening Prayer 7:30 p. m. The Church School meets every Sunday at 9:30 a. m. in the Parish House, 74 Pleasant Street.

PARK AVENUE CHURCH

(Orth. Congregational.)

Cor. Park and Westminister Avenues, Arlington Heights. Rev. John G. Taylor, pastor. Sunday morning service at 10:45; Sunday school at 12:10; Y. P. S. C. E. meeting at 6:30 p. m.; Sunday afternoon at 3:30. Junior C. E. meeting; Thursday evening at 8 o'clock prayer meeting.

BAPTIST CHURCH, ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

Cor. Park and Westminister Avenues. Rev. F. Kendrick Hackett, pastor. Residence, 137 Westminister Avenue. Regular weekly prayer service on Friday evenings at 8 o'clock. R. Society meets on Tuesday evenings at 6 o'clock. Bible school meets at 12:10 every Sunday.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL

Corner of Lowell Street and Westminister Avenue. Arlington Heights. Preaching, Sunday, 10:45 a. m.; Sunday school, 12 noon; praise and prayer service, 6:15 p. m.; preaching, 7 p. m. Rev. L. W. C. Emig, Minister, 2 Crescent Hill Avenue.

TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH

Mass. Ave., Arlington, cor. Ames St. Rev. Lewis A. Walker, Minister. Residence, 21 Ames Street. Sunday services:—Morning prayer 10:00. Worship and Sermon 10:30. Sunday school 11:45. Young People's Meeting 4 p. m. Evening Service and Sermon 7 p. m. Weekly prayer service Friday evening 7:45 p. m.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, LEXINGTON

Pastor, Rev. Samuel A. Knowles. Residence, Massachusetts Avenue. Preaching, 10:30 a. m.; evening service at 8 o'clock.

CHURCH OF OUR REDEEMER

Marion Street, Lexington. Rev. R. B. Oriskany, Rector. Holy Communion First Sunday at 11 a. m. Third Sunday at 8 a. m. Sunday School at 12:15 o'clock. Morning service at 11 a. m.

ORDER OF EASTERN STAR

Longfellow Chapter 117, meets in G. A. R. Hall the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month.

G. A. R., FRANCIS GOULD POST, 36

Meets in G. A. R. Hall, on the first and third Mondays of each month, at 8 o'clock.

W. R. C., No. 43, meets on afternoons of same dates, at same place, at 2 p. m.

R. O. F. CAMP 45

Meets in G. A. R. Hall, on the first and third Mondays of each month, at 8 o'clock.

Arlington Fire Alarm, Location of Box.

TELEPHONES:
Central Station, Broadway 64R.
Combination A, No. 1007 Mass. Ave. 64I.
Hose 1, Arlington Heights 64J.

13 Corner Henderson and Savin Streets.

14 Corner Mass. Avenue and Tent Street.

15 Corner Mass. Avenue and Winter Street.

16 Corner Mass. Avenue cor. Tenth Street.

16B Mass. Ave. bet. Palmer and Wyman Streets

17 Lake Street, opposite D. Wyman's house.

21 North Union Street, opposite Fremont.

21B Broadway, near Gardner St.

221 Somerville, Almas.

22 Town Hall (Police Station)

23 Junction Broadway and Warren Street.

24 Beacon Street, near Warren

25 Hose 3 House, Broadway.

26 Corner Medford Street and Lewis Avenue.

27 Corner Myrtle and Summer Streets.

28 Myrtle "Cross" near Fairview Avenue.

29 Cor. Myrtle and Old Myrtle St.

31 Kensington Park

32 Pleasant Street, near Lake Street.

34 Pleasant Street opp. Gray.

35 Pleasant Street bet. Addison and Wells

36 Town Hall.

37 Russell Street, corner Russell Terr.

38 Academy Street, near Maple.

39 Mass. Avenue near Mill Street.

41 Jason Street near Irving

41B Corner Bartlett Ave. and Windemere Road.

42 Corner Jason St. and Norfolk road.

43 Mass. Avenue, near Schouler Court.

45 Corner Summer and Grove Streets.

46 Hose 4 House, Massachusetts Avenue

47 Brattle Street, near R. R. Station

47B Massachusetts Avenue opp. Forrest Street.

48 Forest Street, north of R. R. tracks.

52 Westminister Avenue cor. Westminister Ave.

54 Junction Park and Westminister Avenues.

<

Arlington Advocate

Fowle's Block, Mass. Avenue

Published every Saturday noon by
C. S. PARKER & SON
Editors and Proprietors
Subscription $2. Single copies 5c.

Arlington, December 5, 1914.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Reading Notices, per line,	25 cents
Special Notices, " "	15 "
Religious and Obituary Notices per line,	10 "
Advertisements, per inch,	75 "
one-half inch,	50 "
Marriages and Deaths—free.

Entered at the Boston post office (Arlington Station) as a second class matter.

Restriction Gaining.

That local option on the granting of licenses for the liquor traffic is a more efficient and satisfactory method of control than prohibition, until such time as the moral sentiment of the community will make the latter effective, is fairly well demonstrated in the results at annual municipal elections. Law enforcement has its source of effectiveness in the moral sentiment of the citizens of the community where such law is operative. This is strikingly demonstrated in laws dealing with the liquor traffic. When by a sort of fluke in the political breeze a community favorable to the granting of licenses swings into the no license column, conditions are changed on the surface only, the law against liquor selling is not enforced, and the next year back it swings into the place where it really belongs,—the license column.

These educational processes of which the above is an illustration have been going on for nearly two generations, with the result that a great majority of the towns in this state prohibit the liquor traffic, while a bunch of cities like Waltham, Somerville, Cambridge, Quincy and others as a rule annually show increasing strength in the majority cast against the saloon. This year the rising tide of protest against the saloon has appeared in cities nearly always found in the license column. The no vote on Tuesday was increased in Holyoke 796, in New Bedford 425, in Pittsfield 729, and in Northampton the vote of a year ago was reversed (1655-1187 in 1913) and the city comes into the No column, 1564 no to 1163 yes.

There are many contributing factors in the sure and permanent growth of public sentiment against the saloon which recent occurrences demonstrate. Some of these are the highest motives that can actuate in dealing with our fellow men, but in the main they are on the lower level of the physical and material. No sentiment rules with the "soulless corporation" that refuses to give employment to the man addicted to the drink habit; it is rarely that big business troubles itself about personal habits beyond demanding clear brains and steady hands on the part of those having places on the pay roll, and yet it is safe to say that hardly anything else has had so large a control on personal habits of young men as the attitude of corporations and captains of industry towards the traffic. It is safe to say these young men are influencing others, that the sentiment against the drink habit is growing, and that a large class has been entirely emancipated during the past decade.

Leaders in labor organizations understand and appreciate what the saloon is doing in the way of injuring workmen—reducing efficiency and wasting wages,—and in several branches of industry patrons of the saloon are few. Let us hope that improved housing and living conditions for the great bulk of earners of the lower rates paid as wages will open the eyes of these men to the fearful waste of money they make when gratifying a habit or taste that should be fought down or controlled.

The meeting of leading national progressives at Chicago this week and the conspicuous absence of the acknowledged leader, reminds us that we have heard little of Theodore Roosevelt for several weeks. Possibly he is going through a sort of hibernating process. It has been reported that he claims to now be "an untalkative Republican." We wonder if several other things beside returns of the late election may not be contributing causes. For instance, may it not have dawned on candidate Roosevelt that his friend Perkins was more interested in seeing the defeat of President Taft than in assisting in gratifying personal ambitions. The "big interests" which Perkins represented had been pushed to the wall; they were afraid of Taft; they were anxious for his defeat. Was Roosevelt made a candidate with the hope of electing him, or to make sure of Taft's defeat through dividing his party? Perhaps this was one of the subjects touched on at Chicago.

Discussing the war in Europe a contemporary well says that there are great possibilities of harm in a people who surrender the birthright of independent citizenship. With newspapers and schools drilled to teach and preach only what is sanctioned from the imperial palace, the most dangerous ideas can be instilled into a whole people. An educated nation capable of this abject surrender is capable of infinitely more harm than the ignorant races living under a despotism like Russia. Here is where the German power is the most threatening menace that has yet appeared on the face of the globe. An educated, scientific and efficient people, that has signed away its civic soul, to have and to hold to medievalism!

Mrs. Arthur M. Dodge, president of the National Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, addressed a letter to the President recently setting out arguments against the proposals of the suffragists. She said in part:—

"The 'Blacklist' against Senators and Congressmen was a suffrage boomerang," wrote Mrs. Dodge; "the war on Democrats another. Their failure in national convention to get the support of suffrage states was a third proof of their political poverty. And the well known indifference of most women who have the ballot to use it at all, much less at the dictation of suffrage leaders, is a final demonstration that the National American Woman Suffrage Association is not a political power, but a mere state of mind with a small, nervous, noisy fraction of women who are discontented with the democracy that has made the United States greatest among the nations of the earth."

Speaking today of the Federal revenue tax of one cent on all telephone messages costing fifteen cents and over which went into effect on December 1, Commercial Representative, Stanley E. Cook, of the telephone company said:—

"The law requires the telephone company to collect this tax, in addition to the regular charge for the message. The new law applies not only to all messages on which the initial rate is fifteen cents or more per message, but also to all messages on which the total charge for a single conversation, including overtime, amounts to fifteen cents or more. Thus, while a call at the initial rate of five cents or ten cents bears no tax, should the conversation be prolonged over the period which would make the aggregate charge fifteen cents or more, the tax of one cent is imposed."

On Dec. 1, the new internal revenue tax went into effect, placing burdens on business, causing great inconvenience, and no end of annoyance. It is all the more exasperating because the necessity for imposing it was created in the first place by a wanton attack upon the industries of the north and west sections of the country and secondly by the extravagance of Congress in the matter of appropriations. The war in Europe has been used as an excuse and a shield, but the effect of that war on the business of this country is so small that it cannot be considered even an important factor.

In endorsing the movement in favor of biennial elections in this state, the Greenfield Gazette and Currier says that "biennials work well everywhere else, and it seems rather antiquated to keep on with an idea so universally discarded, and which involves so much expense, needless machinery and turmoil."

Girls Hockey Match.

Playing on a muddy field the Lexington high school girls' field hockey eleven had an easy time Tuesday defeating the Arlington high school girls, 8 to 2. At Lexington, the same figures of the two other games played this fall and last year. It was the first field hockey match ever contested in Lexington. Monday's victory gives Lexington the series title over the Spy Pond team, this being the second year that the Lexington eleven has beaten Arlington.

A collision between Miss Ruth Scully of Arlington, and Miss Ferry of Lexington, during the third period resulted in a bad cut over Miss Ferry's eye, and after being treated by the officials, she was forced to retire from the game. Miss Ruth Hubbard taking her place at center forward, and Miss Dorothy Teague replacing Miss Hubbard at left inner forward. Miss Ferry returned at the opening of the last quarter.

LEXINGTON H. S. ARLINGTON H. S.
Lucy Sprague, low row, Dorothy Bateman
Ruth Hubbard, left, Mildred Bolster
Dorothy Teague, left
Elizabeth Ferry, left, Gladys Vail
Ruth Hubbard, left, Helen Hildley
Elizabeth Noyers, row, low, Elsie Williams
Elizabeth Cogrove, row
Mabel Page, left, right, Bettie Willis
Helen Locke, left, right, Ruth Gleason
Wilmar Calder, left, right, Penah Vail
Helen Cassidy, left, right, Ruth Gleason
Margaret Kineen, left, right, Ruth Scully
Catherine Dailey, left
Marjory Patterson, left, right, Anna Hooker
Ruth Britton, left, right, Margaret Bell
g. Olive Gillis

Score, Lexington H. S. 8, Arlington H. S. 2. Goals made, by Ruth Hubbard 3, Elizabeth Ferry 2, Dorothy Teague, Lucy Sprague 2, Helen Locke, Gladys Vail, Helen Hildley, Referee, Miss Spencer. Umpires, Miss Marion True and Miss Rosemond Reed. Time, 15m quarters.

(Correspondence.)

Belgium Relief Committee.

To the People of Arlington:—Whenever Arlington has been called upon for help, her people have responded most generously. Today we are asked to help by gifts of money, a people who are in most desperate straits and whose eyes are turned to this fair and beautiful land of America in their distress. Over 7,000,000 Belgians are in need of food and unless they obtain it from America, a large number of them will starve to death.

We know we have poor and suffering in our own country, but thank God no one needs for the want of food in this land of plenty and opportunity. The homes of the people of Belgium are in ruins and they are shivering, without work, without food and without clothing to keep them protected from the blasts of winter. If ever a people needed our help, the innocent Belgian people surely do at this time.

All the money you give will be used to buy food in America which will be shipped to Belgium under the protection of the American flag. We know business may not be what we should like to have it and that most of us are economizing, but nevertheless we feel that almost everyone can spare a little and will be better for it.

The Arlington Business Men's Association has been asked to raise a fund and we have been appointed a committee for this purpose. Subscriptions may be handed or mailed to the Menotomy Trust Company of Arlington. Checks should be made payable to the Belgium Relief Committee, John A. Easton, treasurer. It is hoped that everyone whose heart is moved with pity for these poor Belgians will give immediately, as the need is pressing. The committee is as follows:—Arthur Bacon (chairman), 74 Wallington street, Arlington Heights, ROBERT W. MURPHY, Whittemore Drug Store, WM. P. ATWOOD, Lake street and Mass. avenue, JOHN A. EASTON, (treasurer), Menotomy Trust Company.

(Correspondence.)

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Reading with interest the correspondence in your paper of Nov. 26th, entitled "As others see us," I would like to say that many times I have attended lectures in this part of the country, showing views of the poorer as well as the better class of people and their modes of living.

I have always felt proud of these lectures and criticisms made by the lecturer in showing the pictures as they tend to give a good idea of just how the people of this country are struggling to live and at all times better their conditions. I think your writer, who signs himself "A New Neighbor," is very unfair in his statement in which he says: "But Italians,—Oh! can anything be worse? It is beyond all knowledge to teach them cleanliness, either inside or out. Give them an opportunity and time to evolve, we doubt not the Italian can excel the other nationalities which have come to America, who could not boast the civilization, the culture, musical and artistic attainments which have made our forefathers famous and, we must not forget, the rulers of the civilized world. I feel that the residents of the so-called 'Italian' section of Mystic street are striving to become good citizens, own their own homes and live in peace and harmony with the community and feel that 'Our New Neighbor' is very unjust in his remarks.

FRANK LOPRESTI.

RE—The Metropolitan for December contains another war article by John Reed. He calls it "With the Allies." It is an interesting account of the French soldiers on their way to the front, and a little talk about how the French soldiers feel about the war and how much they know about what they are fighting for. In "The Bombardment of Rheims," Gerald Morgan tells of his visit to the Cathedral at the time of the bombardment. "The Stakes of Diplomacy" by Walter Lippmann is a geographical description of what the different European nations are fighting for. "The Balance of Power" by Inez Hillcutt makes comparisons between the Wars and Nations and the Wars of Classes. "The Story of a Pioneer," by Anna Howard Shaw, is continued, as is "Angela's Business" by Henry Sydney Harrison. There are short stories by W. W. Jacobs, Eleanor Hallowell Abbott, A. E. W. Mason and others. There are a Yuletide poem by Bert Leston Taylor, Art Young's cartoons, six pages of drama and paintings, in rotogravure and the usual departments.

Let us have some of our proposed society events right away and not crowd them all into the end of the season. Usually they dominate the Lenten season—rather an inappropriate time it seems to some of us.

Our streets should be oiled during this open winter weather. Oiling is just as necessary at this time as in summer—in fact, more so.

The December issue of The Country-side Magazine and Suburban Life is the tenth anniversary number of this beautiful big exponent of the open country. Naturally there are articles in remembrance mood by the editors and publishers and a pleasing feature is the reprint of certain of the notable contributions during the magazine's ten years' existence.

Deaths.

DAILY—In Arlington, Nov. 30th, Truman A. Dailey, aged 52 years.

WANTED—Care of invalid or elderly person as nurse of a graduate nurse, or if preferred, in the home of the individual. For further particulars phone Arlington 1437 M, or address E. J. C. ADVOCATE Office, Arlington. bdectf

SALE OF MILLINERY. Entire stock below cost. Hats reduced from $12 and $15 to $3.00. Some trimmed with ostrich, others with fruit and flowers. A few tailored hats at $1.50, reduced from $2.50. LANGHEIM, 392 Mass. avenue, Arlington. bdeciw

APARTMENTS TO LET. At 291 Broad way, fully equipped with all conveniences and janitor service. One of four rooms and bath at $27. One of eight rooms and bath, rental $37. Apply on premises or phone 94 Arlington. bdectf

HAND PRESSED Sweet Cider—Made to order from perfectly selected apples, through December. Address 331 Mass. avenue, Lexington, or phone 1674 Lexington. bdeciw

HOME MADE CAKES. All kinds, 50 cents each. Address Marina I. Phelps, 40 Mass. street, Lexington, Mass. bdeciw

FOR SALE—MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, in excellent order. Will be sold at a bargain. Apply to C. A. Parsons, 795 Mass. avenue, Arlington. bdeciw

FOR SALE. Dining room set, including sideboard. Also chairs, pictures, couch and various housekeeping articles. Tel. Arlington, 367-W. bdeciw

PRIVATE AUTO for Hire. For social calls, parties and pleasure drives. Phone Arlington 1432. R. L. HOBBS, 44 Newcomb St., Arlington. bdeciw

DRESSMAKER Ten years' experience catering to discriminating Back Bay patrons. References desired. Satisfaction guaranteed. Engagements by the day or at home. Miss Parry, 736 Mass. avenue, or phone Arlington 1497 M. bdeciw

TENEMENT of four rooms to let at 54 Lewis avenue. Improvements. $15 per month. Tel. 444 Arlington. bdeciw

LOST. Book No. 2067 of Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank. Application has been made for payment of the account in accordance with section 40, Chapter 890 of the Acts of 1906, as amended. Payment has been stopped. bdeciw

TO LET on Gray street, Arlington, nine room half of double house. All modern improvements. Address Mrs. H. F. Flaten 25 Clafin street, Milford, Mass., or tel. Milford 390. bdeciw

LEXINGTON. Two very desirable rooms, modern conveniences, centrally located, good boarding place 5 minutes' walk from house. Address to Muzzey street, or telephone 1034. bdeciw

TO LET. The Arlington, Pleasant street. Upper 3 room apartment, all modern conveniences, continuous hot water, gas range, hot water heat, janitor service. Rent $55.00. Young children excluded. Apply C. A. Moore, 81 Walnut street. Telephone connection. bdeciw

WHEN looking for an orchestra, phone Arlington 368 and get rates of Sterling Orchestra. Dance and concert work. R. L. HOBBS, 44 Newcomb street, Arlington. bdeciw

Wood Bros. Express,

669 MASS. AVENUE.

The Arlington Express

C-F Modern Orchestra.

Phone Somerville 3835-M

DORIS L. GRENNER
—MUSIC FOR—
ENTERTAINMENTS, SELECT DANCES, ETC.

Brief News Items.

Dye stuffs valued at a million and a half dollars arrived in New York from Germany on Tuesday.

Gen. Villa arrived in the vicinity of the city of Mexico on Monday at the head of a force of 25,000 men.

The heavy fog on Monday and also on Tuesday morning, materially interfered with shipping in Boston harbor.

This week King George of England paid a visit to the forces of that nation carrying on the war against Germany.

After seventeen years of continual service as Mayor of New Bedford, Charles S. Ashley was defeated for another term on Tuesday.

The Queen of Belgium has been prostrated by her work among the sick and wounded in hospitals and is now confined to her room by illness.

Ambassador Page gives good and sufficient reasons why every American going abroad, until the war is over, should be provided with passports.

The expected rush to sell bonds was not realized when the N. Y. Stock Exchange opened on Monday. Instead of a rush, business was dull.

An increase in passenger rates on all the railroads terminating in Boston will go into effect on January 1, but will not apply to the metropolitan zone.

The U. S. Gov. levied a stamp tax and then failed to supply a sufficient quantity to meet even the first demand in Boston, causing great inconvenience.

Members of Congress are now in Washington, ready for the opening of the second session of that body. Committees have been in session this week making up reports.

A committee of which Ex-Gov. Curtis Guild is chairman, has issued an appeal for help to the destitute in Poland, which, like Belgium, has been devastated by conflicting armies.

Frank W. Bird, son of Charles S. Bird, twice leader of the Progressive party in this state, has purchased a controlling interest in the Boston Advertiser and Evening Record and assumed control on Dec. 1.

Considering the way Uncle Sam has got out of Mexico, it would seem to have been wiser not to have got in. Conditions in Mexico are worse than when Huerta refused to salute our flag and Vera Cruz was occupied.

The new buildings to accommodate Mass. Inst. of Technology, now in process of erection on the margin of Charles river in Cambridge, are so far advanced as to give a good idea of its large dimensions when completed.

Masked men robbed the Jamaica Plain branch of the H. P. Hood Milk Co. of $2,800 on Monday, having first bound and gagged the cashier. It was collection day and the money had not been turned over to the central office.

The privilege of attending service in the prison chapel at Charlestown came to Jesse Pomeroy last Sunday. It is 23 years since he was allowed to mingle with any fellow prisoners. We hope there will be no occasion to regret this change.

The $200,000 voted by Congress for the relief of the sufferers by the conflagration in Salem, is still held up through a technicality introduced by the treasury department at Washington. Government relief of unfortunate conditions does not seem to apply north of the old Mason and Dixon line.

Lucius Tuttle, former president of the B. & M. Corporation, died at his home in Brookline, on Monday, aged 68 years. Mr. Tuttle came to the old Boston & Maine Co. as a passenger agent; was soon advanced to higher places of trust, planned and carried through the combinations that formed the B. & M. System and managed its affairs until the recent absorption by the N. Y. & N. H. R. R.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
To the Honorable, the Judge of the Land Court.

Respectfully represents Martin O'Brien of Lexington, in the County of Middlesex, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, that he is the owner in fee simple of the several lots of land and the buildings thereon, situated in said Lexington and bounded as follows:

FIRST PARCEL, containing three acres and three quarters, is bounded northerly on a town road easterly and southerly by the lot of or formerly of Warren Smith, and westerly by land now or formerly of Benjamin Baldwin. SECOND PARCEL is near the above described lot and is bounded southerly by said town road, easterly by land now or formerly of John Earl, Jr., and westerly by land now or formerly of Eben R. Smith, and contains six acres. THIRD PARCEL containing eight acres is bounded easterly by town road southerly by land now or formerly of Richard Wellington, now or formerly of William Viles, westerly by land now or formerly of Elijah Brown, and northerly by said town road. The said three parcels being the same conveyed to me by deed of John Lacey, dated June 26th, 1885, and recorded with Middlesex No. Dist. Deeds, book 17th, page 435.

And your petitioner says that the recorded title of said real estate is incumbered by an undischarged mortgage covering said premises, given by said Martin O'Brien to one William L. Lockhart, dated Dec. 28, 1885, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, book 1732, page 207, that the said William L. Lockhart and the several administrators of said Lockhart estate have since deceased, that the said mortgage and those having his estate in said premises have had interrupted possession of said real estate for more than twenty years after the expiration of the time for the full performance of the conditions of said mortgage, that no payment on account of the amount secured by said mortgage has been made, and that no action in enforcement of its existence as a valid mortgage has been done within said twenty years. That the inventory of the property of said William L. Lockhart contained no reference to said mortgage, and that said mortgage or other obligation of said O'Brien. And your petitioner believes that said mortgage was long since paid and by accident or misadventure the discharge thereof has not been recorded in said registry of deeds.

WHEREFORE your petitioner prays that such notice may be ordered to be given to the representatives of said William L. Lockhart and those interested in his estate, and to all other persons interested in said estate as the Court may order, and that the decree may be entered setting forth such findings of the Court in relation thereto and ordering that from and after such decree, no action shall ever be brought by any person to claim a title under said mortgage, and that the said mortgage be released and cancelled upon the records.

MASSACHUSETTS.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.
LAND COURT.
MIDDLESEX, SS.

(SEAL)

Upon the foregoing petition, it is ordered that the petitioner give notice to all persons interested in said petition to appear before the Land Court, at Cambridge, within and for our said County of Middlesex (where appearances and answers may be filed with Thomas Leighton, Junior Register of Deeds for the South Registry District of said Middlesex County, as Assistant Recorder of said Court) on the first Monday of January next, by causing a true and attested copy of said petition and this order to be published forthwith once a week for three successive weeks in the Lexington MINSTER MAN, a news paper published in Lexington, in said County of Middlesex, the last publication to be fourteen days at least before said first Monday of January next; by serving each known respondent within the Commonwealth with a like attested copy of said petition and order fourteen days at least before said first Monday of January next; and by serving a like attested copy of said petition and order by registered mail on each known respondent without the Commonwealth as soon as may be, and in any event fourteen days at least before said first Monday of January next, that all respondents may then and there cause why the prayer of said petition should not be granted. By the Court.

Attent: CLARENCE C. SMITH, Recorder.
Dated, November 24, 1914.

A True Copy, Attest:
CLARENCE C. SMITH, Recorder.

bdeciw

FRESH AIRRVAL

A LARGE ASSORTMENT OF

HARD CANDIES

Very Delicious 25 cts. 1b.

APOLLO, LIGGETTS AND LOWNEY CHOCOLATES.

TRY OUR DELICIOUS HOT CHOCOLATE 5cts. WITH WHIPPED CREAM.

ICE CREAM ALL WINTER

FILLED HERE ARE GIVEN CAREFUL ATTENTION AND NONE BUT THE BEST DRUGS ARE USED.

Grossmith's CORNER PHARMACY

RUSSELL & FAIRFIELD

General Insurance

20 KILBY STREET, BOSTON.

GOOD SERVICE

Reasonable Rates

Always on the Job.

Arlington-Belmont Ice Company

Phone, 174-W

R. W. HILLIARD

Insurance Agency,

669 Mass. Avenue,

ARLINGTON, - MASS.

Tel. 4708 Main. Boston Office, 67 Milk St.

These are Timely Items for the Christmas Shopper

Boston's Complete Linen Store offers the following interesting
Holiday Suggestions

EMBROIDERIES	(13-Piece Cross-Stitched Luncheon Set, with material to finish)	$3.00
LINENS	Stamped Novelties to Embroider—Handkerchief, Glove, Jewel, Sachet, Needle CASES 19c to 35c
HANDKERCHIEFS	Hand-embroidered Madeira Sets	$5.25 to $65.00
DRESS & WAIST PATTERNS	Embroidered and Initial Handkerchiefs, each	12½c to 2.00
	Wide variety of attractive designs (percales, holly batiste, and chiffon voile)	$1.00 to 2.00
	Hand-embroidered waist patterns	2.75 and 3.00

NOVELTIES IN GUEST TOWELS 25c, 50c, 75c

T. D. Whitney & Co.

37-39 Temple Place, 25 West Street Boston, Mass.

COAL

At Lowest Market Price

PEIRCE & WINN CO.

CLARK Bros.

COAL=GRAIN.

NO. CAMBRIDGE JUNCTION

2464 Mass. Avenue, North Cambridge, Mass.

15septcm

EAST LEXINGTON LOCALS.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tyler and children went to Leominster to her home people for the holiday.

Santa Claus is making preparations to have all his stockings mended for the Christmas holiday.

Miss May Daley was home from her school work at Sterling, to enjoy the feast dinner with the large home circle.

It is hoped that the clock will arrive to bid good-bye to the old year and bring in the new year with a hearty welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Weeks and daughter, Catherine, intended passing the holiday at his mother's pleasant home in Malden.

Dr. Mongeon, wife and daughter, of Middle street, were the guests of his home people on Thanksgiving at Providence, Rhode Island.

We hear Mr. George Morton and family have moved into part of the recently finished double house on Mass. avenue, owned by Mr. A. S. Parsons.

Mr. Lucius A. Austin is preparing to have his barn transformed into a two-apartment house. Mr. George Sawyer, of Arlington, will do the carpenter work.

Mr. John B. Bisbee, brother of Miss Eleanor Bisbee, of Arlington, will address the Guild next Sunday evening on "Labrador," with illustrated views. All are invited.

Miss Bisbee, of Arlington, a student in Tufts Theological school, entertained the Guild and others, Sunday evening, with a concise and excellent recital on "Universalism."

What is to be the name of the new boulevard? The land in its vicinity has long been familiar to us as the "Four Acre Lot," "Sheep Rocks" and "Mt. Independence."

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Worthen, of Maple street, welcomed their children and pet grandchildren to the holiday, but regretted that their son, Carlton, was only able to be present in spirit.

Mr. and Mrs. Bevington, with daughter and son, of Middle street, report a glorious time at Jamaica Plain, with Mrs. Bevington's sister, Mrs. Clark, in the new and elegant home of the family near the pond.

Mr. Charles Herbert Lowe entertained, on Thanksgiving Day, a large family group, at his home on Mass. avenue. Mr. and Mrs. John Dinwoodie, of Lynn, were among the guests. Young and old had a merry time.

We hear that the United Improvement Association, of Liberty Heights, have engaged Follen vestry for next Monday evening, when the association members, with their wives, will enjoy a sumptuous supper and then an entertainment of music and other features.

Vernon Page, who coached for the Adams football team, was greatly surprised by the reception of a two dollar and a half gold piece, which was tendered to him by Robert Tucker in behalf of the club, and Mr. Page expressed his hearty thanks for the gift.

Mr. Ernest Kaufmann and family, with Mrs. Kaufmann's brother, spent the Thanksgiving holiday with his father, Mr. C. G. Kaufmann, on Maple street. Miss Florence Kaufmann did not come on account of her being so far away. She spent the holiday at Bloomfield, N. J.

Rev. Harold L. Pickett will preach, Sunday morning, on "The Task of Happiness." The attendance on the morning services at Follen church has been unusually good this autumn, and it is hoped that the present high average may be maintained, or even increased, during the rest of the church year. In view of the

Whittemore's
Shoe Polishes
FINEST QUALITY LARGEST VARIETY

GLIT EDGE (The only ladies' shoe dressing that positively contains Oil, Black, Polishes and Preserves ladies' and children's shoes, shines without rubbing, 35c. "TRENCH GLOSS," 10c.

"DANDY" combination for cleaning and polishing all kinds of russet or tan shoes, 35c. "STAR," size, 10c.

"QUICK WHITE" (In liquid form with sponge quickly cleans and whitens dirty canvas shoes, 10c. & 25c.

"ALBO" cleans and whitens BUCK, NUBUCK, SUEDE and CANVAS SHOES. In round white cakes packed in zinc boxes, with sponge, 10c. In handsome, large aluminum boxes, with sponge, 25c.

If your dealer does not keep the kind you want, send us the price in stamps for full size package, charges paid.

WHITTEMORE BROS. & CO.,
20-26 Albany Street, Cambridge, Mass.
The Oldest and Largest Manufacturers of Shoe Polishes in the World.

J. V. N. HATFIELD,
CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER.
Jobs Promptly Attended To 80 Pleasant Street,
EL. 901 M ARLINGTON. Nare

LINEN SHOP.
We are showing the latest ideas in Embroidery. It will pay you to call and look over our stock of dainty articles. The new Balkan Girdle directions free with materials to make. Columbia Yarns, all shades for crocheting and knitting. Royal Society Flashes in all leading shades. Pretty cross stitch designs. Canvas for use in making designs. Lunch sets in the new shapes. Center pieces, pillows, oval mats, new Hungarian collars, linen, flannel and B.M.C. to make, for 25 cents.
Buttons covered and plaiting made.

MRS. A. F. P. CASSETT.
P. O. Bldg., Room 18. 687 Mass. Avenue. 27 Junett

JAMES T. SWAN,
CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANT.
60 STATE ST., BOSTON.
Tel. Fort Hill 2447 Residence: Arlington 1202W 27 Jan 30

E. REARDON, FLORIST,
895 Mass. Avenue
CUT FLOWERS FURNERAL DESIGNS
WEDDING DECORATIONS
VIOLINS IN THEIR SEASON
TELEPHONE Arlington 96 W

conditions confronting us in the world to-day, it behooves the people who inhabit this earth to turn their minds and hearts about to religion with quickened interest and deepened devotion and fervor.

Rev. Harold L. Pickett preached at Waverley on Sunday, as the pastor of the Unitarian church was detained at home by illness. Our pastor is very fortunate in having a wife who is a minister, and she preached an interesting sermon to a good congregation. The subject of Mr. Pickett's sermon was "The Interwoven Words."

Some of our people have been pleasantly entertained at the authors' readings, which have been conducted by the publishers of the "Better Books of the Year," during the month of November, at Paine's Furniture store, Boston. The readings have been delightful and have been enjoyed by young and old.

Many from our village attended the Outlook Club on Tuesday of this week and were delightfully entertained with Miss Agnes Reppel's paper on "The Courageous Reader." Many of us have read her Atlantic Monthly articles with much interest. Miss Ellen M. Tower extended the hospitalities of her lovely home to Miss Reppel.

An unusually interesting meeting is promised for Follen Guild this Sunday evening, Dec. 6th. Mr. John Bisbee, of Arlington and Tufts College, will give an illustrated address on "Dr. Grenfell's Work in Labrador." Mr. Bisbee spent last year as a teacher in the Mission and is very able to speak on the subject. There will be a collection taken for the Mission, which is greatly in need of funds from America this year, as half of its support is cut off by the war in Europe. It is hoped there will be a large attendance at this meeting of the Guild, which will be held in the audience room.

The regular monthly meeting of the East Lexington Men's Club was held in Follen church vestry, Monday evening, Nov. 30th. A fine supper was served by the supper committee, W. H. Bacon, chairman. After supper President Wilson introduced Mr. John F. Scully, superintendent of schools in Arlington, who spoke on Holland and Belgium. His talk was very interesting and some very fine views of the war zone were shown. Mr. Scully is a man of pleasing personality and a very interesting speaker and the club enjoyed one of the best evenings it has ever had. After the speaking a short business meeting was held.

Before the arrival of Thanksgiving, there are always many forethoughts, so after its occurrence is rolled up in the parchment of the past, there are after thoughts. The afternoon before the festival, as many viewed the heavens, they exclaimed, "Oh! there will be a pouring rain for our feast day and many who planned so much pleasure," but almost miraculously the scene changed and the heavens displayed a panoramic view seldom equalled, for we beheld the most magnificent golden sky with streaks of that azure blue which no painter has ever been able to portray in its loveliness on canvas, and Rachel weeping for her children who would not be with her round the festive board, was transformed into a joyous Rachel, with hope's bright star shining for the morrow. And so Thanksgiving was a perfect day, with soft air and bright sky and the wanderers flocked hither and thither; but the old stage coach with its many occupants was not visible. We wish to thank the e who extended invitations to join in their home festivities that day and also for gifts of flowers, fruit and other dainties and many kind, appropriate cards and letters from the far south and west, filled with pleasant reminiscences, showing that many do not forget the days of "Auld Lang Syne," and though they cannot touch shoulder to shoulder with us, they will never forget the old acquaintances and send us written thoughts with sprays of barberry and bayberry to link us to the past and give a sweet flavor to the sumptuous repast. A pleasant book could be written of the Thanksgiving home greetings of 1914, and centered round Plymouth Rock, even though the devastating war across the seas may have marred somewhat the pleasure, the bright star of hope in our loved New England on Thanksgiving Day will never set.

ELLERY M. PARKS

Optometrist
EYES EXAMINED. PRESCRIPTIONS FILLED.
GLASSES REPAIRED.
Examinations by Appointment Preferred.
Rooms 307-8 Washington Bldg.

387 WASHINGTON ST., BOSTON
OPP. FRANKLIN ST.
Telephone Connection.

CHAS. T. HARTWELL

SANITARIAN
Graduate of the Philadelphia College Sanitary Science, Disinfection and Chemistry.
Will attend to all cases for fumigation or disinfection under the latest improved methods.

Office: 4 Medford St., { Arlington, Mass.
Res., 792 Mass. Ave., {

H. E. GAMESTER
Carpenter and Builder
Specialty made of Jobbing. West Medford and Arlington.
Shop, MEDFORD ST., ARLINGTON
(Res. of J. H. Hartwell & Son.)
Telephone Residence, 131 Myrtle St.

W. W. RAWSON.
Florist and Decorator

PLANTS AND CUT FLOWERS
Furnished for All Occasions.
Hardy Shrubs and Bedding Plants in Season

FUNERAL DESIGNS AND WEDDING DECORATIONS
A SPECIALTY.
Store, 443 Mass. Ave., Arlington, Mass.
Greenhouses, Warren St.
Tel. 71 Arlington. 13 Aug 17

Piano Tuning. FRANK A. LOCKE, Tel. Res. Specialist, See Adv.

Look Out for ROUP

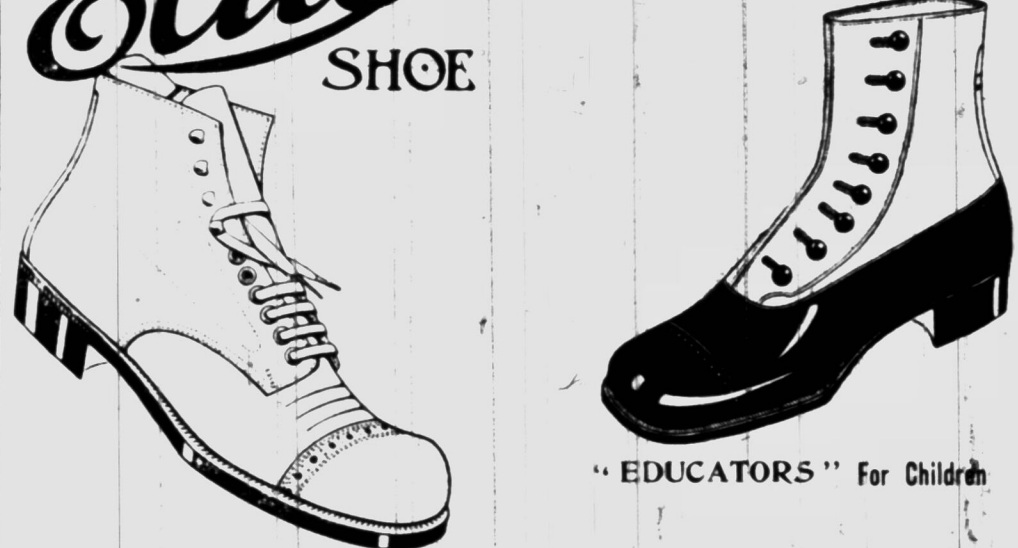

A day's delay may mean the loss of all your hens. You not only save your flocks but you restore them to vigorous health by using

Pratts Roup Remedy

Checks the disease almost instantly. Have Pratts on hand. Keeps till used. Pratts Poultry Regulator makes hens lay now. Take our word for it and then it fails we will give you your money back. We sell Pratts Regulator and Remedies.
FOR SALE BY PEIRCE & WINN CO., Arlington.
J. CUSHING, North Cambridge.
CLARK BROS., North Cambridge

Our business success depends upon the satisfaction given our Customers by the merchandise we sell. Confidence in the following lines assure that satisfaction to you.

The Elite SHOE

"ELITES" FOR MEN.
"GOODYEAR GLOVES" Rubbers and many other lines of equal qualities.
"COMFY" slippers in all colors, for Christmas Gifts. "SCHOLLS" FOOT APPLIANCES" for your foot troubles.

WE DO REPAIRING
GEO. H. RICE

INCORPORATED 1869

The New England Trust Company

BOSTON, MASS.

Capital $1,000,000 Surplus and Profits over $3,000,000

ACTS AS EXECUTOR, ADMINISTRATOR, TRUSTEE, GUARDIAN, ATTORNEY OR AGENT

Our Trust Department now holding over $28,000,000 of Trust property, is fully equipped to handle Trusts of all kinds. We are always glad to consult with persons who contemplate making a will or creating any sort of a Trust. We give our clients the advantages of a capital and surplus of $4,000,000 and a corporate organization.

Write for our Booklet:
"THE MANAGEMENT OF TRUST PROPERTY"

JAMES R. HOOPER, President
ARTHUR ADAMS, Vice President
ALEXANDER COCHRANE, V. Pres.
DAVID R. WHITNEY, Vice President
HENRY N. MARK, Secretary
FREDERICK W. ALLEN, Treasurer
FRANCIS R. JEWETT, Trust Officer
THOMAS E. EATON, Asst. Treasurer
EDWARD B. LADD, Asst. Treasurer
ORRIN C. HART, Asst. Trust Officer
JAMES H. SAWYER, Manager Safe Deposit Vaults

THE OLDEST TRUST COMPANY IN BOSTON

GET PROTECTION.
We insure you against loss occasioned by BURGLARY - THEFT - LARCENY.
From your Residence, Flat, Stable or Garage. Thefts by Sneak Thieves and Servants or Employees covered.
YOU NEED THIS PROTECTION.
Call on GEO. Y. WELLINGTON & SON
General Insurance Agents.
Tel. Connection. ARLINGTON MASS.

REVERE COFFEE
STANDS THE TEST
SOLD IN ARLINGTON BY JAMES O. HOLT
HOT WATER BAGS
A Large Line to select from and PRICES RIGHT.

The Whittemore Pharmacy
R. W. MURPHY, Proprietor 653 MASS. AVENUE, ARLINGTON

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS LOCALS

Rehearsals are being held for a cantata that will be given Christmas Day at the Methodist church.

The next meeting of the Sunshine Club will be on the afternoon of Dec. 9, with Mrs. Alan Mott King. It will be a business meeting.

The Park Avenue Cong'l church, Y. P. S. C. E. will conduct an entertainment this (Friday) evening in the church, for the benefit of the Belgians.

Operations have been started for a new house to be erected on Florence avenue, near the Edmond Byram property. We understand it will be a bungalow of attractive proportions.

Dr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Brooks entertained a family dinner party of twenty-one on Thanksgiving day, at their home, 103 Claremont avenue. The vegetables, fruit and one bouncing big duck were products of the doctor's miniature farm.

Capt. James E. Ballard is down on the topic card of the Y. P. S. C. E. of Park Avenue Cong'l church to address the meeting next Sunday evening. His topic is, "Sailing the Seas." Miss Lucile Ballard is the musical leader of the December meetings.

Rev. Alexander McLeod, of Millis, will address the Nichols Class of the Park Avenue Congregational church next Sunday at its regular session beginning at 12.10 p. m. His subject will be, "The Development of the Christian Church." He is an interesting speaker and a large attendance is expected.

After fifteen years of service, Rev. John G. Taylor, pastor of Park Avenue church, resigned last Sunday morning, the same to take effect at Easter. It is doubtful whether the church will accept the resignation. Although seventy years of age, Mr. Taylor is strong and never more efficient than now, and the church cannot well afford to lose his valuable services and those of his capable wife.

At the meeting of St. James' Branch, L. C. B. A., Tuesday evening, the following officers were elected:—

President, Mrs. Mary Lind; first vice-pres., Mrs. Elizabeth Butler; second vice-pres., Mrs. Leahy; sec. sec., Miss Alice Murphy; treasurer, Mrs. Katherine Dahill; reader, Miss Katherine O'Donnell; asst. rec., Miss Mary Kyne; marshal, Miss Marion Meehan; guard, Miss Rose Meehan; trustees for two years, Miss Annie White, Miss Gertrude McHugh; trustees for one year, Miss May Furdon, Miss Nellie Noone, Miss Katie Sweeney.

The James Tildens, who came over from Winchester to attend the meeting of the K. P. G. Club, had somewhat of an experience in arriving at the Heights, on account of the fog that pervaded the atmosphere on Monday evening. The Tildens started in their automobile, but were obliged to return home, as the fog was so dense that Mr. Tilden completely lost his way and found he was headed in just the opposite direction from that which he desired to go. They finally resorted to the electric, but the run was made so slowly that it was nine thirty before they reached the Heights.

Another one of those attractive dancing parties managed by Messrs. Allyn and Marden was given last Saturday evening in Crescent Hall. The party was somewhat larger than the previous ones that have been held and was attended by a few couples from the Heights, but the greater part of the patrons were from out of town. Attractive music, with many fine dancers, made the evening a pleasure for those who participated. During the evening Mrs. Billings and Mr. Harold Marden, who have been giving exhibition dances at one of the well known restaurants in Boston, gave an exhibition of the maxixe.

As announced in the daily papers last week, Claude A. Palmer won first prize in the Boston Chamber of Commerce membership contest. At a dinner at the Harvard Club, President Coolidge presented Mr. Palmer with the $100.00 gold watch (also a gold goat for a watch charm) as captain of the winning team. New members totaling 264 were secured in two weeks, establishing a new high record of 4,835 members and making it by far the largest commercial organization in the world. Mr. Palmer was also captain of the winning team last year, when he secured 103 new members in two weeks. Among the new members secured were Henry Cabot Lodge, Mayor Childs of Newton, Mayor Good of Cambridge, and Rufus W. Blake, president of the Arlington Business Men's Ass'n.

Mrs. W. Allen Hall (born Ada Wiswell), who was a recent guest at a luncheon party given by Mrs. Fred H. Curry in Mrs. Hall's honor, left Saturday of last week for San Francisco, Cal., with her two children and husband, who is a naval officer and who for the past three years has been stationed at Annapolis. Mrs. Hall's husband will be stationed for the next three years on a training ship at Guam, which is an island in the Pacific ocean and about a week's sail from Honolulu. Mrs. Hall will live on the training ship with her little family, her husband being one of the instructors on the ship. This will be a new experience for Mrs. Hall and one she is not looking forward to with so much enthusiasm as she might if she did not have two small children to bring up amidst what will be rather restricted quarters.

The Marion Philathea Bible Class of the Baptist church, held a social at the home of Mrs. Helen L. Streeter, 1494 Mass. avenue, Tuesday night, the occasion being the fifty-fifth anniversary of Mrs. Streeter's birth. During the evening there was a reading of Mrs. Streeter's favorite hymn, "O Happy Day," also poems of Joseph C. Lincoln, Sam Walter Foss and Nixon Waterman. An original poem on Mrs. Streeter's birthday was read and a presentation of flowers with a subscription to "Missions" by the class, the presentation being made by Miss Viola Michaels. Mr. A. W. Freeman sent greetings as superintendent of the Sunday school, as did also the Home department and the minister, Rev. F. Kendrick Hackett. The social was in charge of Miss Sarah Head and Miss Viola Michaels.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church held a fair on Tuesday and Wednesday, both afternoons and evenings, of this week, in the church vestry. Christmas decorations, carried out with crepe paper and cheese cloth, were used effectively at the different sales tables. Mrs. Joseph Southall is president of the Aid and she had the hearty co-operation of all the members in promoting the success of the fair. The work table, as well as fancy table, were decorated in green and red. Mrs. F. J. Harding was in charge of the former, while Mesdames Spencer, Zhan and Clinger had the fancy articles. A fine line of groceries was sold by Mrs. Robert Brown, Clinger and Irwin, and the table decoration was in pale green. Collars and neckwear were sold by Mesdames Irwin, Bull and Hattie, and his decoration was in cheese cloth and holly, while the candy table was in red and white, and was in charge of the Edworth League. All kinds of novelties were displayed on a table decorated in two shades of green, the sale women being Mesdames MacPherson and Solomon. Mesdames Saunders, Cross and Roberts had the catering in charge both days, and provided a fine bill of fare to choose from, including cold meats, mashed potatoes, beans, frankfurts and other substantial, besides ice cream and cake. There was a short entertainment of local talent, arranged for by Mrs. L. W. C. Emig, for Wednesday evening. It consisted of recitations by Ethel and Erna Coolidge and soprano solos by Miss Grace Mooney and Mrs. Norman Hitchcock.

Mrs. Wm. Drouett, of Florence avenue, will continue to receive clothing for the Belgian sufferers, in behalf of the Social Service Dept. of the Arlington Woman's Club, till Saturday, Dec. 12.

In the Eastern Dog Show, held in Mechanics Building, Boston, last week, Vincent P. Lusk won first in puppy class with Vinlusk Dot, first in novice class with Vinlusk Winona; also, special prize for best English Setter in puppy classes, with Vinlusk Dot. Mr. Lusk has won twelve firsts, three seconds, two winners, three reserve winners and seven specials in the eight shows held in the year 1914.

At the evening service, last Sunday, in the Methodist Episcopal church, the Menotomy Camp Fire Girls made their first appearance in the regulation costume. The Camp is made up of young girls ranging in age from twelve to thirteen and are now in charge of Mrs. Mattie Siles Craig, but up to this time the Camp has been under the direction of Mrs. L. W. C. Emig and Mrs. Fred Harding, who were the organizers of the local Camp. After Christmas an older Camp will be organized by Mrs. McOrrell. The service last Sunday evening was for the girls in the church and on the coming Sunday evening it will be for the women and in charge of the minister, Rev. Mr. Emig.

Kitchen Orchestra Concert.

The Friday Social Club gave a highly amusing as well as clever entertainment Wednesday evening, in Crescent Hall. It was called a "Kitchen Orchestra Concert" and rightly so, for all the instruments played on were constructed out of utensils used in the kitchen and no little ingenuity was displayed in their construction, this being the work of Mrs. Jack Martin. A similar concert has been held at the Heights before, so that our readers are familiar with its character. The music is made by a mouth piece used in conjunction with the different instruments.

Fictitious names were given each performer, but the talent was easily recognized. The members of the orchestra were in a unique costume of red and white. Mrs. Martin was the leader, with Miss Alice Kendall at the piano. The program consisted of selections by the orchestra, with solo numbers and duets, both instrumental and vocal, and interspersed were readings by Miss Dorothy Carpenter. Two special features on the program were the song "Glowworm," sung by Mrs. Arthur Souster, accompanied by the orchestra, with Mrs. Ralph Houser singing tenor, and which introduced the small pocket flashlights to imitate the glowworm, the regular lights being turned out to give the effect. The other was "That Little German Band," that was carried out with completeness in every detail. The ladies giving this number were Mesdames Clark, Sherman, B. Basdale and Lovett. The other special numbers were by Miss Bunton, Mrs. Mead, Mrs. Houser and Mrs. Willard. The members of the orchestra not already named were Mesdames Cathcart, Hiley, Fredericks, Schnetzer, Wood, Snow, Johnson, Thomas and George Lloyd.

PIANO TUNING

and a specialist on all piano troubles. Formerly head tuner in factory 18 years, and tuning instructor in Boston Conservatory of Music. Tuner in Arlington over 20 years. High recommendations. Pianos selected for people, saving them $25 to $75. Arlington office, F. A. Smith's store, 489 Mass. avenue. Telephone in M. A. Arlington Heights, L. D. Bradley's store. Refers to Ex. Gov. Brackett, E. Nelson Blake, Wm. E. Wood, Dr. Percy, Cyrus E. Dallin, F. V. Noyes, and many others in Arlington.

FRANK A. LOCKE
Telephone in Residence.
Boston Office, 10 Bromfield street.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

PROBATE COURT.
MIDDLESEX. SS.
To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of PATRICK J. LENNON, late of Arlington, in said County, deceased.

Whereas a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Mary J. Lennon, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her, the executrix therein named, without giving a surety on her official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-second day of December, A. D. 1914, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Arlington Advocate, a newspaper published in Arlington, the last publication to be on one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing, postpaid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, CHARLES J. MCINTIRE, Esquire, first Judge of said Court, this twenty-seventh day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen. W. E. ROGERS, Secy.

Our office phone is 141, Arlington. C. S. PARKER & SON.

G. Forrestre Greene,
LANDSCAPE GARDENER,
ARLINGTON, MASS.
455 Massachusetts Ave., P. O. Box 133
Fruit and Ornamental Trees, Shrubs, Roses and Hardy Bulbs and plants. Designing, Planting and Pruning. Two seasons with one of the latest nurseries in New England. My personal attention in all cases. Send me postal and will call. 12sep18w

Arlington Fruit Store.
P. MANDARINO & CO.
Foreign and Domestic Fruits
ALSO VEGETABLES.

Telephone, Arlington 672-R. Free Delivery. 191 Mass. Ave. Arlington. 14nov18w

THE MOTHER'S CHOICE.

One Five Minutes in the Life of Her Dead Soldier Son.

A mother lost her soldier son. The news came to her in dispatches from the war. He had fallen fighting nobly at the head of his regiment.

She was inconsolable. "Oh, that I might see him again," she prayed. "If only for five minutes—but to see him!"

An angel answered her prayer. "For five minutes," the angel said.

"Quick, quick!" said the mother, her tears turned to momentary joy.

"Yes," said the angel, "but think a little. He was a grown man. There are thirty years to choose from. How would you see him?"

The mother paused and wondered.

"Would you see him," said the angel, "as a soldier dying heroically at his post? Would you see him as he left you to join the transport? Would you see him as you first saw him in his uniform? Would you see him again as on that day at school when he stepped to the platform to receive the highest honors a boy could have?"

"How did you know?" the mother asked, her eyes lighting.

The angel smiled. "Would you see him as a baby at your breast? Would you?"

"No," said the mother. "I would have him for five minutes as he was one day when he ran in from the garden to ask my forgiveness for being naughty. He was so small and so unhappy, and he was very hot, and the tears were making streaks down his face through the garden dirt. And he flew into my arms with such force that he hurt me."—C. V. Lucas in "Lucas' Annual."

WAR HORSES IN BATTLE.

Cavalry Mounts Revel in the Dash and Fury of the Charge.

It will probably surprise you, said a retired colonel of hussars, to learn that a cavalry horse usually enjoys a battle at least as much as his rider and displays as much courage in it. He will chafe and stamp with impatience while waiting for the order to charge and at the signal will dash forward like a greyhound released from the leash, full of fire and fury and often neighing wildly. At the moment of contact with the enemy he will rear, striking and biting savagely at the opposing horses and trampling down the infantry.

When his rider falls he will dash along with his fellows and crash as gallantly into the foe. In the famous charge of the Light brigade scores of riderless horses swept down the "valley of death," thundering through the smoke on to the Russian guns, and galloped back in safety with the shattered remnant of the brigade. Five horses raced neck and neck with Lord Alfred Paget, who rode in advance of the line, so eager were they to get at the enemy.

And not only is the well trained charger as brave as his rider. He is often as intelligent. He knows the bugle calls just as well and answers them as promptly. In fact, I have known many a case in which a horse has put his rider right when he has mistaken an order and has gone faultlessly through a maneuver in spite of the efforts of his mistaken master to make him do the wrong thing.—London Tit-Bits.

How to Become Rich.

"My early difficulties taught me some thrift," said Mark Twain once, "but I never knew whether it was wiser to spend my last cent for a cigar to smoke or for an apple to devour."

"I am astounded," observed a friend, "that a person with so little decision should have met with so much worldly success."

Mark Twain bent his head gravely. "Indecision about spending money," he said, "is worthy of cultivation. When I couldn't decide what to buy with my last cent I kept it and so became rich."

Coffee Beans.

Coffee grains are only the seed of a fruit which is very much like a cherry. It is very sweet and has a good taste. When the fruit is dried it shrivels up around the coffee grains, of which there are two in each one of the round balls placed with the flat sides together. Sometimes in the cheaper kinds of coffee these little dried balls are found with the two coffee grains snugly held inside.

Confidence.

Stern Parent—What makes you think, young man, that if my daughter marries you she will be supported in the style to which she has been accustomed? Freshlight—The fact that you are a candidate for public office and can't afford to have members of your family starving in the presence of the dear public.—Richmond Dispatch.

Botanically Speaking.

"Do you think a woman should regard her husband as an oak and herself as the clinging ivy?"

"Well," replied Miss Cayenne, "I'd rather take a chance on being a clinging ivy than a wall flower."—Washington Star.

Not the Place.

"Why don't you write to this paper for what you want to know? The editor says his columns give a few wrinkles on every matter."

"Not for mine. I want to know how to keep my complexion youthful."—Exchange.

Flattery.

Willie—Paw, what is flattery? Paw—Flattery is telling a woman the nice things she has always thought about herself, my son.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Sloth never arrived at the attainment of a good wish.—Cervantes.

THE MODEL MAN.

There Was a Difference of Opinion on His Right to the Title.

Aladdin rubbed the lamp.

A genie appeared.

"Well," said Aladdin, "the messenger service here certainly is prompt. But what I wanted to say, Genie, is this: Go and fetch me a model man."

"But, sir," the genie began, "I have always heard that there is no model."

"Never mind; do as I say."

The genie left. When he came back he was accompanied by a man and two women.

"He is," returned the elder of the women.

The younger woman spoke up quickly.

"He is not. He is far from being a model man."

"Who are you?" Aladdin asked.

"I am his wife."

"Who is the lady that says he is the model man?" queried Aladdin.

The elder woman spoke.

"I," she said proudly, "am his mother."—Detroit News.

Sauce For the Gander.

She went into the club one day

To have a cup of tea

And long before she went away

I think that she'd had three.

"Just let me have a clove, please, Beth,"

She whispered to the maid.

"To go home with this fragrant breath

I'd really be afraid."

"Afraid!" the waitress did speak low—

"Of what?" I cannot see.

"My husband would be vexed, you know

He hates the smell of tea!"

The Way of Judges.

"William," asked the judge's wife,

"did you get the spool of silk thread

I ordered you to bring home yesterday?"

"No, my dear, I did not."

"Dear me! How provoking! Be sure to get it today."

"I'm sorry, but I cannot do so."

"Why not, I'd like to know?"

"I have looked through all the books, and I have been unable to find a precedent that would warrant me in taking such action."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Family Quarrel.

A man whose wife afar would stray

Was seen his tears to wipe.

She took the hairpins all away.

He couldn't clean his pipe.

And yet it was her right to go.

The neighbors all declare

He mused up all the hairpins so

She couldn't do her hair.

Not a Planter.

"What have you there, son?"

"Ten beans."

"Beans? You mean dollars?"

"Yep."

"Why don't you call money by its right name?"

"Ain't beans a good enough name for money?"

"Not for you. You never plant any."

—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Overhead Economy.

"We must cut down our overhead expense."

My husband cried, with manner most impressive,

And when I asked him what he meant he said,

"My dear, I find your hat bills most excessive."

Giving Him a Tip.

Jack (at 11:30 p. m.)—Can I get you to say yes?

Maud (stifling a yawn)—That depends on your question. Try asking me if I am sleepy.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

One of the Firm.

A friend of ours went out as a representative of a business firm. He presented his card.

"I'm one of the firm," said he.

"Which one?" said they.

"Well, it's 'Wilson & Co.," said he.

"I'm the 'and.'"—Milwaukee Free Press.

A Hare.

There was an old cocker named Grew,

Whose puns made his friends rather blue.

He was eating one day

And the cook heard him say,

"There's a hare in this here rabbit stew."

—Cincinnati Enquirer.

No Bears.

"Language is a queer thing. You speak of your forebears."

"Yes."

"And yet you insist that we are descended from monkeys."—Louisville

Courier-Journal.

The Old Days.

Wife used to wash him with a broom,

And really that came cheaper.

Than chasing him around the room

And breaking the carpet sweeper.

—Kansas City Journal.

She Was Wise.

"I'm sorry to be so late, my dear. A friend asked me to stop by and take pot luck with him."

"Well, did you win the pot?"—Birmingham Age-Herald.

A Fixed (Up) Star.

Not a wrinkle, little star,

To give away how old you are

'Tis well that folks can't guess your age

Or what you look like off the stage.

—New York Journal.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Nephritis.

For chronic kidney disease—nephritis—Dr. A. Kakowski prescribes a diet of pumpkin. In an article in a leading German medical magazine the famous Russian physician extols its virtues and calls it the ideal diuretic food. But it must be used in large quantities—three to six pounds a day. He has the pumpkin cut in small pieces, covered with water, boiled over a slow fire for two hours and served with butter, milk or cream. In one of his cases 252 pounds of pumpkin were eaten in eighty days without any ill effects. Long standing cases are cured within a very short time.

NO MORE LAVISH SPENDERS.

New York's Swell Dining Places Mourn Their Passing.

"Hotels and restaurants are expecting something more than usual from society this winter," said one hotel man, who is as well up on the restaurant situation as anybody in New York. "It is believed that fashionable people will do little entertaining in their homes. It will be cheaper and easier to invite their friends to a restaurant, where they may have dancing after the dinner."

"As a matter of fact, the day of the lavish spender is gone, so far as New York is concerned. We shall never see again the era that ended nine or ten years ago. Those were the days when men from Chicago or Pittsburgh vied with each other in the extravagance of their entertainments. It was nothing for a dinner to cost $25 a cover. Nowadays the average is about $4.50."

"The change in spending habits has forced the hotels to become cost accountants. The manager of every modern house is now able to know, when a mutton chop is placed on the table, just how much of each item the hotel's expenses that chop has to carry."—New York Times.

DECOY PERISCOPES.

A Submarine Trick to Lure the Enemy to Destruction.

Such things exist as decoy periscopes—short lengths of pipe held upright on a float and looking exactly like the real periscope. The submarine sets them adrift for you to find—sometimes scatters several of them.

When one is sighted you cannot stop to consider whether the little object dancing on the sea half a mile or so distant does or does not mean 250 pounds of high explosive coming straight at you. Maybe you will see an aeroplane maneuvering over it in a way that carries conviction that it does. You don't dare to take any chances and so you train all the guns at it.

Then the real submarine slinks up on the other side of the ship, and with the swift rush of its torpedo, the latest of sea tragedies comes to an end.—Park Benjamin in the New York Independent.

Reproducing the Grand Canyon.

A panoramic reproduction of the Grand Canyon of Arizona is being built at the Panama-Pacific International exposition at a cost of over $300,000. Over 50,000 square yards of linen canvas imported from Scotland are being used for the set pieces. Visitors in this concession will view the panoramas from observation parlor cars moved by electricity on an elevated trestle seemingly along the rim of the canyon. The observer will be enabled to see eight of the most distinctive points of the canyon, and the ride will last over half an hour, including, apparently, a journey of more than 100 miles of the great gorge. Every resource of modern science is employed in the work of reproduction.

Chinese and Japanese in This Land.

The total number of Chinese in the United States proper, according to the census of 1910, was 71,531, while the total number of Japanese was 72,157. These figures for 1910 are comparable with 89,863 Chinese and 24,326 Japanese who were in the United States proper in 1900, showing that the number of Chinese in this country in 1910 was 18,332 less than in 1900, while the number of Japanese increased 47,831 from 1900 to 1910. These figures do not include the Chinese and Japanese under the American flag living in the outlying possessions of the United States.

Harvard's Low Is High.

You can't size up a Harvard freshman by his name this year. J. Low is a strapping six footer, while I. B. Tall is the smallest chap in the class. H. Shortall is right between Tall and Low in stature. He is neutral. There is a Kaiser among the yearlings. M. T. Coffin, despite his gloomy name, is the life of the Smith hall joy-makers. Mr. Rich is in the class, also two youths of Means, but they are offset financially by Mr. Poor. Arthur Stonestreet and Johnnie Starbird are other names enrolled.—New York World.

Died in Battle.

From the beginning of the Christian era to the present, according to historians, there have been less than 240 warless years. Up to the middle of the nineteenth century it was roughly computed that nearly 7,000,000,000 men had died in battle since the beginning of recorded history, a number equal to almost five times the present estimated population of the globe.

LOST GEMS OF ART

Many Famous Paintings Have Mysteriously Vanished.

WORKS OF THE OLD MASTERS.

Hundreds of Portraits by Reynolds Are Among the Missing Treasures, Besides Masterpieces of Correggio, Titian, da Vinci and Others.

There are many famous paintings by the old masters that have mysteriously vanished. They are known to have been painted, but their whereabouts has been an enigma for several hundred years.

From time to time lost pictures come again to the knowledge of the world, as when the original of the Dulwich Velasquez, the "Philip IV," was found in a Polish nobleman's castle; when the portrait of Isabel de Valois, King Philip II's third wife, by Coello—the original of that by Pantoja de la Cruz in the Prado—was finally identified at the Grafton gallery, to which the Gaekwar of Baroda had lent it; when Titian's "Perseus and Andromeda" was found by Sir Claude Phillips in the bathroom of Hertford House, and Botticelli's "Pallas and the Centaur" was identified by an English critic, forgotten and unnoticed in an obscure place in the Uffizi gallery—a queer place to lose a picture.

It is declared that no fewer than 400 portraits by Sir Joshua Reynolds have disappeared. The historians of art—the "Anonimo," Vassari and many an other—speak with admiration of pictures so innumerable which have passed into the limbo of the unknown that the announcement of a discovery is rarely treated with absolute skepticism, even in the case of the greatest masters. There is plenty of room for the appearance of a number of early works by Velasquez—de Bernete gives a list of them—but especially the portrait of Fonseca, which gave to Velasquez his footing in Madrid, and more particularly the equestrian portrait of Philip IV., which placed him so quickly upon the pedestal.

Or take Correggio. There is the picture of "The Savior," a copy of which hangs in the Prado. There is the "Resurrection in Egypt," the "Herodias" triptych, the "St. Bartholomew," the "Young Man Fleeing From the Captors of Christ," "The Birth of Venus" and "St. Mary Magdalene" and others besides—alot.

And Titian (a group of whose masterpieces were burned in a great English country house), where on earth is his portrait of Isabella Gonzaga and her son, which is known to us through the copy by Pordenone? Giorgione also. He is so rare a master—rare alike as to numbers and to quality—that the recovery of his "Birth of Venus" would be an event of the very highest importance in the world of art. The Anonimo speaks of it, but since his day no other writer, so far as experts are aware, has ever set eyes on it.

Although we have so many hundred canvases of that amazing genius, Rubens, the loss of a picture such as his "Cambyses and the Judge" is a distinct deprivation, inasmuch as it is said to have been one of his finest efforts. It was painted in 1623 for the magistrates' hall in the town hall of Brussels, and no less than 3,000 florins was paid for it.

We might spare, perhaps, the "Head of Christ," by Andrea del Sarto (painted in 1524), for similar works of his exist, but it is otherwise with his "Visitation" of the same year, if only because Andrea was a painter of greatest importance, historically considered—he who broke away entirely from Gothic rigidity and introduced a sentiment and a delightful sense of gaiety and sweetness that brought art home to hearts untouched by the earlier dignity and gravity which they felt oppressive.

The portraits of Terburg, again, are a delight, and a host of them exist (including not a few not unworthy of him, but really by the hand of his pupil, Koets), yet we cannot read without regret the list of them, as well as of his exquisite subject pictures, which M. Hofstede de Groot's researches have enabled us to make. We may even regard with relative equanimity the disappearance of Nicholas Poussin's "Rinaldo and Armida." But on quite another plane is the mystery of the portraits which Leonardo da Vinci painted for Ludovico Sforza and which vanished into thin air as completely as his "Mona Lisa" a couple of years ago.

The found lady re-emerged into the light of day, but the Ludovico portraits are practically beyond hope—unless perchance even now, unsuspected of their identity, they are decorating the upper corridors of some great house (mines of unexplored wealth) or the back storerooms of minor dealers.—New York Press.

Caesar Used Elephants in Britain.

Tradition has it that Caesar brought elephants with him to Britain and that they contributed to his conquest of the island. Having unsuccessfully attempted to cross the Thames, Caesar built a large turret on an elephant and, loading it with bowmen and slingers, ordered them to pass the stream, whereupon the Britons, terrified at the sight of the unknown monster, fled in confusion.—London Chronicle.

Through want of enterprise and faith men are where they are—buying and selling and spending their lives like serfs.—Thoreau.

A RIVAL'S DOWNFALL

Out of Bitterness the Lovers Drew Happiness.

By ESTHER AINSLEE.

If Dalzell's store advertised a sale of silk dress goods in the Monday issue of the Rosemont Banner it was a certainty that the paper's Tuesday night number would contain an ad. from Thompson's store across the street telling of bargains in satins, with a side line of embroideries, at which Rosemont smiled appreciatively and reaped the benefit.

The town was proud of the proprietors of the two leading dry goods stores, for most of the young men left for the adjacent big city when it came time to make their way in the world, but Malcolm Dalzell and Lewis Thompson within a year of each other settled down to make a living in their home town.

Perhaps it were better to say Rosemont was proud of their enterprise, for Lewis Thompson was not the type to inspire affection in the hearts of his townsmen. A man cannot be blamed for lack of magnetism and an attractive nature, but nevertheless he suffers for it, and Thompson possessed besides these drawbacks a hot headed, quarrelsome disposition and a theory that every man had a right to look out for himself to the exclusion of any possible rights of others.

His aggressiveness made him enemies where Malcolm Dalzell won friends by his mere cheerfulness and diplomacy. But each flourished on his own side of the street.

Not only were they rivals in business, but from the days of carrying schoolbooks there had seemingly been but one girl in the world in the eyes of each, Milly Wainwright, with the waves of soft brown hair and eyes that matched it, with the sweet voice and appealing little ways.

Shrewd people even said the reason both boys stayed in Rosemont was that each was afraid to leave the other a clear field with Milly, who had never shown any preference between the two.

Lewis Thompson was a different man with her. Her mere presence smoothed and softened the aggressive young business man, and she smiled incredulously when stories of his cold shrewdness and overreaching deals came to her ears.

Yet unknown to herself Malcolm Dalzell occupied a place in her life from which no one could dislodge him. Milly was in the delicious and dreamy state of indecision which a girl always prolongs unwittingly. Life was sweet to her, and even the growing wildness of her younger brother, Dick, which was aging her father and mother, had not power to do more than depress her momentarily.

"It's only because Dick is young," she told her mother half indignantly. "He will see the mistake of his ways before he ever does anything really wrong. Why, Dick wouldn't be really bad. It's absurd!"

She was great chums with the handsome eighteen-year-old brother, and because she did have faith in him the boy turned to her always in his rare spells of repentance. At present he had gone to work in a bank in the next town, six miles distant.

The Rosemont Banner had two columns of description, speculation and denunciation when Thompson's store was robbed. Malefactors were rare in Rosemont, and the night watchman's work was perfunctory, but nevertheless Lewis Thompson discovered a back window pried open and nearly $200 worth of silks and laces missing.

Three weeks later he was reduced to explosive rage by the discovery that again his store had been entered. This time a hundred dollars' worth of goods vanished. In his wrath the owner of the store telegraphed for a city detective and established a night patrol for the block. The city detective looked important, smoked the cigars of the leading citizens, who wanted to tell him their theories as to the robbery, had a very pleasant time and departed with dark hints as to future developments.

"At any rate," Lewis Thompson said vigorously, "with Maloney on hand as a watchman the thief won't get another chance!"

"It's hard luck, Lewis," sympathized Malcolm Dalzell with his business rival.

Milady's Mirror

Washing the Face Correctly.

If you wash your face in the wrong way every day for a year your skin will be coarsened and your color spoiled. If you look at yourself in a good light you will see many wrinkles.

This is the right way of washing your face:

Start by bathing it in clear hot water. Apply a little good pure soap to a soft flannel or your fingers and go over your face with this.

Rinse the soap off again with hot water.

Sponge your face lightly with cool—not cold—water.

Dry your face downward. By careless rubbing upward you can very soon spoil the shape of your nose.

Brush or comb your eyebrows, which will have become a little rumpled with the drying of your face. If you leave them as they are they will grow into bad lines.

It is not necessary to use soap on your face more than once a day. If you come home at night with a thoroughly soiled face and neck you can cleanse them best by rubbing a little pure toilet cream all over them and then taking this off again with a bit of soft rag. The grease will bring the dirt away wonderfully. After you have wiped it all off bathe your face in warm water.

If you are very pale it is a good thing to splash cold water up into your face when you have finished washing. Throw it up briskly with both hands from the basin.

Care of the Hands.

Almond meal used in place of soap beautifies the skin.

Instead of using soap when the hands have become grimed with dry soil or grease, try rubbing oil or vaseline to remove the dirt, then follow with soap and water. Dry thoroughly and sprinkle a little perfumed rice powder over the hands.

Cosmetic gloves hasten the beautifying effects and may be purchased ready to slip on.

A simple exercise to remove awkward movements of the hands is to open and close them ten times a day. Do this work slowly and with as much grace as can be commanded.

Relaxing the hands, allowing them to remain idle from twenty minutes to half an hour, is excellent for nervous women who have difficulty in keeping them quiet or free from trembling.

Brittle Nails.

Gout in the family is often shown by an undue brittleness of the nails. Brittle nails are invariably harsh and ugly looking, too, with unsightly ridges down the middle. It is very difficult indeed to make them take any sort of polish.

Here is the remedy. Every night after washing and applying glycerin and rosewater to the hands rub some ordinary olive oil well into the nails. Persevere in this treatment and you will find that the brittleness will very soon disappear.

Trim the nails with scissors as little as possible, but use the nail file instead, smoothing afterward with one of those little emery boards which may be bought quite cheaply in packets of a dozen or less at any druggist's.

Cultivating Expression.

The secret of beauty does not entirely lie in the art of massaging, nor is it due to the skill of the perfumer, the taste of the dressmaker or the cleverness of the milliner, but in the recognition of the fact that the human face and form change with every year of life and, knowing this, governing one's actions accordingly. If your face lacks intellectuality the only way to remedy it is by exercise of mind. Take up a course of reading and study beyond that which you have hitherto attained. To put it figuratively, cultivate the muscles of the brain as you would cultivate the muscles of the body. It is the action of the brain that will influence the expression.

Flowing Hair.

The beauty of the hair is improved by letting it flow every now and then, and as one is supposed to lounge on in the privacy of the bedroom the resting moment is an excellent time for this. Pass the comb through the locks once or twice to relieve the strain hairpins have given the scalp and then tie a ribbon loosely about the head to keep front strands from falling over the face. The more the fresh air blows through the hair while it is hanging down the better for it.

Tight Lacing and the Health.

It is quite true that tight lacing of the waist is responsible for many cases of indigestion. The necessity for tight lacing is an ill proportioned body, usually due to neglect or overindulgence. The stomach rebels at being confined when performing its labors and announces its displeasure by not taking proper care of the food ingested, which results in discomfort and eventually indigestion.

The Last Look.

After dressing and when ready to go out place a hand mirror on the floor against the wall and turn slowly around. If the undershirt shows below the dress it will be readily seen and a slovenly look may be avoided.

NEAR FUR COATS.

Luxurious Effects Achieved
In Wraps at Moderate Cost.

FABRIC FUR COAT.

This season those who cannot afford the real thing may have near fur coats of a perfection not dreamed of a few years ago. Manufacturers are imitating all the high priced furs in material that looks very like it, and many women who can well afford the genuine are wearing it. The sumptuous wrap here shown is of fabric fur in broadtail effect. It has the new pointed outline and is trimmed with a collar of pointed fox.

Nuts For the Table.

A point to remember when serving nuts is that they are of firm texture and of highly concentrated food value, and consequently are more digestible when put through the grinder before being added to other food.

It is also well to know the kinds of nuts that should be used to get certain results.

Pecans, peanuts, English walnuts, hazelnuts, filberts, hickory nuts, pine nuts, pistachos and almonds are tissue builders. Butternuts, Brazil nuts, black walnuts and coconuts—the oily nuts—are quick heat and energy producers.

Chestnuts and chinquapins rank as cereals and breadstuffs. They may take the place of rice or potatoes. Being starchy, they must be cooked to be suitable for the table.

Peanuts, we all know, are nuts only by courtesy. Like pine nuts and almonds, they contain a good supply of all the food elements. The high price of almonds makes them a luxury almost beyond the reach of a moderate purse.

Smart Embroidered Neckwear.

The chemisette pictured here is combined with a flaring collar. It is a useful accessory to the one piece gown or the dark blouse.

The flowers and leaves can be worked either solidly or as eyelets or in a combination of solid work with eye-lets. To obtain the effect illustrated let the front edges of the chemisette meet, work buttonholes in each side and close with links. Make solid embroidery by first darning backward and forward over the stamped dots, and then cover closely with over and over stitches, working in the opposite direction from the padding. To make the leaves and petals of the daisies as eyelets run a thread around the outline, then cut a slight slit lengthwise, then crosswise and work closely over and over.

EMBROIDERED CHEMISETTE AND COLLAR.

This May Manton design is for embroidering a chemisette with a flaring collar. Send 10 cents to this office, giving No. 541, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage. When ordering use coupon.

No. Size

Name

Address

WE BOW TO RUSSIA.

Slavic Influence on Fashions
Is Quite Marked at Present.

SMART NEW COAT.

The Russian note is strong in fashions. The coat illustrated here exemplifies this. It is of black broadcloth, of marked length and with a well defined flare. Collar, cuffs and broad belt are of velvet. The latter is embroidered on the front, with a design showing interlaced acorns. Worn with it are one of the new high crowned velvet hats and smart walking boots.

Girl's Silk Hat.

There is a hat similar to a man's silk hat designed for little girls. It is trimmed with a tiny stickup and is chic for the morning or afternoon promenade. For small girls there is a fascinating hat something on the order of a garden bonnet. It is trimmed with roses and has streamers at the back. A small girl's winter coat has raglan sleeves. These coats will cover the frock and button tight to the throat.

New Black Lingerie.

Black lingerie is a new thing. It is made of chiffon and lace, like the daintiest of pink and white lingerie, and it is quite as elaborate as its colored predecessors. Sometimes, too, black lace is used in fresh pink chiffon.

All sorts of negligee garments are made in black chiffon and lace, usually chantilly. And they are not mourning garments either, but simply in line with the new black lingerie.

Smart Winter Wrap.

Tunics and draperies have brought the demand for short coats to be worn therewith. Here is one of the newest and prettiest. The extra back is loose to give a cape effect. The sleeves are in raglan style.

In the picture the material is hunter's green zibeline, with trimming of black fur. The model is a good one for lightweight chiffon velvet, however, and for almost all the fashionable suitings.

RAGLAN COAT.

For the medium size the coat will require three and three-quarter yards of material twenty-seven inches wide, with two and three-eighth yards of fur banding.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes from 24 to 42 inches bust measure. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number 540, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage. When ordering use coupon.

No. Size

Name

Address

WHY NOT Be a Subscriber==

Nothing can fill the place of a local paper like this one

1914 DEC. 1914

SUN	MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
		1	2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10	11	12
13	14	15	16	17	18	19
20	21	22	23	24	25	26
27	28	29	30	31

High Toned, Clean in every way; bright, newsy,—it is like sunlight in the home . . .

Have it delivered FREE, instead of paying more for it at the agency and having to go for it each week . .

ADVOCATE

Good Work
Low Prices
Promptness

THESE FORM THE FOUNDATION ON WHICH

C. S. PARKER
& SON== ease solicitation of orders from those not familiar with the past history of the office and who perhaps do not know how

Splendidly Equipped

are the commodious and well fitted rooms

446 Massachusetts Ave.,
ARLINGTON, MASS.,

to execute promptly and in highest style of the art, any thing pertaining to . . .

Job Printing

Also, Books, Pamphlets, Folders, etc., etc.

WE STRIVE TO PLEASE

Woman's World

Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney Equips a Military Hospital For France.

MRS. WHITNEY AND SPECIMEN OF HER WORK.

Wonderful in its equipment is the military hospital which has been established by Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney at the front of the fighting line of the allies' army. Part of its equipment consists of four skilled surgeons from New York, ten motor ambulances, a large supply of medical appliances and clothing for 3,000 persons. All the expense is being borne by Mrs. Whitney, who is personally supervising the work.

This field hospital is to be stationed as near as possible to the firing line, where the wounded may be rushed immediately for aid. At present hospitals in operation along the battle front are able to handle only the less serious cases. Those severely wounded often die while being transferred to the surgical hospitals at Paris or in the interior. Mrs. Whitney's hospital will care for the soldiers of all nationalities.

Mrs. Whitney, who was Miss Gertrude Vanderbilt, is a sculptor of note. She has done much work of merit. The white marble fountain illustrated here is to adorn the patio of the California building at the Panama-Pacific exposition. It is a beautiful creation and was loaned to the exposition.

Mrs. Whitney's sister Gladys is the wife of the Hungarian Count Szecsenyi. She is generously aiding the wounded in Austria. Their cousin, the Duchess of Marlborough, is at the head of one of the British organizations for aiding war sufferers.

WHAT TO CHOOSE.

The Problem That is About to Confront the Christmas Gift Giver.

The wise Christmas shopper has her problem well in hand before she starts out for the shops, for she has doubtless ascertained what she can spend on each and what those whom she expects to favor may care to receive. Often, however, there are one or two doubtful names on her list, and in case of doubt some trinket of jewelry is likely to be acceptable if the gift is for a woman. The simple bar pin shown here is set with brilliants within a border of jet. The watch face of moire ribbon is ornamented with jet and supports a watch in black enamel. Black is very fashionable this season and anything in jet is in mode. These would be very appropriate tokens for an elderly woman or one who is in mourning.

BAR PIN AND WATCH FOR.

Wedding Anniversaries.

The wedding anniversaries usually observed are the first, fifth, tenth, fifteenth, twenty-fifth and fiftieth, called respectively the paper, wooden, tin, crystal, silver and golden weddings. It is a pretty sentiment to observe these anniversaries, and sufficient hints can be had for a gift from the name of the anniversary celebrated. Invitations to the first anniversary are usually limited to intimate friends, but for the crystal, silver and especially the golden wedding large gatherings are the rule.

ARLINGTON LOCAL NEWS

Continued from 1st page.

ject of the evening. The music was especially good. Mr. Chas. Beckett gave a tenor solo, with violin obligato, which was played by Miss Spross of Cambridge. The choir, under the direction of Mrs. W. I. Corcoran, also sang. The ordinance of baptism was administered at the close of the service.

The railroad officials have agreed to improve the lighting of the centre station.

The W. C. T. U. is holding its regular meeting (this Friday) afternoon, at three o'clock, in the parlor of First Baptist church.

We chanced onto a High School "Clarion" the other day. It has quite a unique cover page, which shows a cut of Menotomy, the Indian, on a shield in the form of an arrow head. The first page is devoted to an appropriate obituary notice of the late Alice Burr, written by Principal Mitchell.

The Fire Dept. had a stubborn fire to fight last night (Thursday) in response to Box 162. The large barn on the W. H. Allen farm, just in the rear of the house and near Palmer street, was destroyed and part of its contents. It is stated that the fire had been burning some time before discovered.

The big society event of the season will close the old year. Arlington Boat Club is to be the sponsor for a grand promenade concert and dance in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, Wednesday night, Dec. 30. The First Corps Cadet Band of Boston (twenty pieces), will furnish the music, a big attraction in itself.

The Woman's Aid Association of the Symmes Arlington Hospital held a meeting, Thursday afternoon, in Associates Hall, presided over by the president, Mrs. John H. Hardy. Besides reports from the different departments of the association, there was a splendid musical program given by members of the Music Club, and readings by Miss Marjory Patten.

In the first of a series of bowling games among the firemen of this town the members of Combination A defeated Ladder 1 team, Monday night on the Teal Sq. Alleys, Somerville. Combination A team rolled a total of 1216 against 1140 by the Ladder 1 team. George Finley of Ladder 1 team was high roller, with 115 for a single-string total. During the winter it is proposed to have games among the firemen and a league has been started. John Tierney is captain of Combination A team and John J. Donahue captain of Ladder 1 team.

The marriage of Miss Beulah Benton Edmondson, the Cherokee Indian Princess, to Richard Croker of New York, which received considerable publicity in the daily newspapers, brings home interest to the Clover Comedy Club. Miss Edmondson was a valued member of the Clover's, appearing in important parts in "Lady Huntworth's Experiment" and "Chums," under Mr. Partridge's directions. Her Indian folk songs which have won her fame were the feature of one of those merry Clover Comedy Club cavorts.

Candidates for the Arlington High school ice hockey seven received their first call Monday, from Capt. Ross. Between 40 and 45 boys, one of the largest squads ever out, responded. Only two are veterans of last year's star seven. Besides Capt. Ross, who played centre, the only other veteran is John Harrington, the goal tend. Jost, Donnelly and Lindberg, who substituted on the seven last year, are out. Yesterday Capt. Ross had the candidates jog a half mile and shoot the puck on the concrete in front of the high school building. The team has no coach as yet.

The second ladies' night of the season will be given by Arlington Boat Club, on Tuesday evening of next week, Dec. 8, at the club house. The entertainment will take the form of a delightful concert program. The talent includes Carl Webster, cellist; Carl Hawleek, violinist; J. Albert Baumgartner, pianist. The e's to be a soprano soloist also. The report of the "Smoker," given last week appeared by a misplacement in the Heights columns, but subscribers should read all the news and not skip important events which are general in their interest.

At the annual meeting of the Belmont Spring Country Club, held at the club house, Nov. 25, 1914, the following officers were elected:—Pres. E. C. Stevens, of Lexington, succeeding Mr. Henry Hornblower, who has been President of the Club since its inception five years ago:—

President, E. C. Stevens; Vice-Pres.,—Col. E. C. Benton, of Belmont; 2nd.—Mr. H. D. Foss, of Cambridge; 3rd.—Dr. A. C. Potter, of Cambridge; 4th.—Mr. W. L. Underwood, of Belmont. Executive Committee,—W. H. Burgess, of Lexington; A. E. Bliss of Malden, Bowen Tufts, of Medford. Secy., Edward C. Stone, of Lexington, Treasurer,—W. E. Robinson, of Winchester.

Andrew Henderson, formerly of Arlington and Boston, died suddenly on last Friday morning, at his home, 194 Prospect place, Brooklyn, of heart disease, after a brief illness. Mr. Henderson was the proprietor of the Henderson Coat and Apron Company at 124 130 East 12th street, New York City. He was most successful in business and amassed a very large fortune and was very generous to those in need. He was forty-eight years of age, and is survived by parents in Scotland, and two sisters, Mrs. Jennie Newman of Brooklyn and Mrs. Mary Gelling of New York City. The funeral was held at his late home on last Sunday afternoon, conducted by the rector of one of the Episcopal churches in Brooklyn, with interment in Greenwood cemetery, Brooklyn. His three first cousins from 36 Addison street, Arlington, Messrs. Edward L., Charles R., and David Ross Beattie attended the funeral.

The Arlington Teachers' Club are to have an open meeting on Thursday, December 17, with the Lotus Quartet, assisted by a reader and a pianist, as entertainers. The Lotus Quartet is, without doubt, the finest male quartet in America, and curiously, though they have given concerts in most of the towns surrounding Boston, they have never been heard in Arlington, except occasionally at funerals. This is a rare treat which the Teachers' Club is offering the public a chance to enjoy. Last July this quartet made a tour to England where they met with the greatest success. The Blanford, England, paper, says: "A concert the like of which might not occur again for a generation. The harmony was perfect." In Nottingham, the papers speak of their concert as, "The finest male quartet singing ever heard in Nottingham." Three hundred tickets only will be available, and these will be sold at thirty five and fifty cents each. We feel sure that all who are interested in good music will take this opportunity to hear what doubtless will prove to be the finest concert to be heard in Arlington this year.

We will soon have to have a larger church at the East Side if the evidence of our eyes are not deceiving. The young people and children simply pour out of Trinity Baptist church at noons on Sunday. Would it not be wise for the churches of other denominations, at the center, to do a me proselyting among those at the East Side who might naturally affiliate with them? Certainly there is plenty of room in all these churches. Appoint a church visitor and find out. It will at least show that you are interested and also advertise your church.

The Massachusetts State Board of Agriculture has presented the town of Arlington with a beautiful silver loving cup "For Best Boys' and Girls' Work, season 1914," in the Home Garden work of last summer, the exhibition of which was held at the close of the season at the High school building. Supt. Scully and all who had anything to do with the work of the Home gardens of Arlington, which were developed by the school boys and girls from different sections of the town, under the direction of Mrs. Eastwood, have reason to feel gratified with the honor that has come to the boys and girls who worked so faithfully during the summer months.

Wednesday evening, in Robbins Memorial Hall, the young ladies students of Marychiff Academy, Arlington, gave a dramatic performance of "Mary Stuart," a tragedy in five acts. The attendance was large and most appreciative and the performance creditable in all particulars, the musical numbers adding not a little to the effectiveness of the performance. The young ladies taking part were as follows, not only appearing in the feminine parts but also the male characters:—

Misses Katherine G. Walsh, Kathleen A. Doyle, Marion L. Conley, Rose M. O'Brien, Margaret M. Brennan, Catherine Buckley, Mary E. Brodine, Alice B. Carey, Anna A. Brodine, Mary B. Farnsworth, Louise L. Hargen, Sabina M. Atkinson, Mary E. Gowan, Katharine Fitzgerald, Evelyn K. Meade, A. Murphy, W. Gannon, C. Kerrigan, F. Casey.

Hiram Lodge, F. & A. M., held its annual meeting Wednesday evening, with a dinner served in Grand Army Hall, at six o'clock, attended by nearly two hundred members. Supper was followed with an address by Rev. Wm. H. Ryder, D. D., honorary member of the lodge and now resident of Essex. Dr. Ryder is never in a happier vein than when addressing an assembly of the Masonic fraternity. An address followed by Henry A. Austin, treasurer of the Lodge. The company then adjourned to Masonic Hall, where the annual reports were heard, then came the election of officers. Dr. H. A. Austin was chosen Master, the other officers being Sr. Warden, Edw. N. Lacey, Jr. Warden, Wm. H. Hiley, Sec., Ernest Hesselstine; Treas., Henry A. Austin. The roll call was an interesting feature and many letters received were alluded to, making it one of the most enjoyable as well as memorable occasions in the annals of old Hiram Lodge. The membership of the lodge is now 304.

Grand Army Hall, or rather banquet room, was a close second to a barn scene on Monday evening. It was the scene of a "Husking Bee." The floor was strewn with a heap of corn for busy, deft fingers to strip, and hay and straw were so disposed as to be effective, while from the ceiling were suspended lanterns and jack-o'-lanterns to further carry out the idea. Never in the history of Charles V. Marsh Camp 45, Sons of Veterans, that gave the party, has there been such a large gathering as there was last Monday evening. The members of the Camp were assisted by the Ladies' Auxiliary affiliated with the Camp. Many came in rural costume. After the husking all repaired to the upper hall, where the contest for the prizes for the best costumes was held. The judges were Frank Haven, Constance F. Oakman and J. B. Maynard and the prizes went to Mrs. Arthur Griffin and Mrs. Oscar Teel, ladies' first and second, and Oscar Teel and B. W. Ham, gent's first and second. The grand march was led by Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Ham. The affair was in charge of:—

Harvey H. Bacon, chairman; Ernest H. Griffin, secretary; Mrs. Clara Oakman Powers, Mrs. Mary E. Dickson, Mrs. Lila Russell, Mrs. J. D. Tucker, Mrs. Ernest H. Griffin, Mrs. Harvey H. Bacon, from the Auxiliary, and B. W. Ham, Philip Ross, Frank Amazeen, Joseph Paine and John L. Ennis, from the Camp.

Mrs. B. W. Ham, president of the Auxiliary, and Commander I. Waldo Floyd of the Camp, were ex-officio members of the committee and had general supervision of the affair.

Arlington Business Men's Ass'n met in G. A. R. Hall Tuesday evening, held the usual excellent supper, and transacted quite a budget of business, besides enjoying one of the best addresses ever listened to. The latter was given by Geo. H. Gallup, Esq., connected with the "Cosmopolitan Magazine," who was pleasantly introduced by Pres. Blake. Mr. Gallup spoke most effectively on the influence of "Publicity" in creating a general interest in the development and upbuilding of a town or city. Last year's committee was empowered to raise a subscription for a free bed at Symmes Hospital, and on motion of N. J. Hardy a committee was appointed for the purpose of stimulating trade in Arlington, the committee consisting of Messrs. Hardy, Holt, Jardine, Rice, Murphy and Whowell. On motion of Arthur Birch a committee composed of Messrs. Stevens, Holt and Birch was appointed to draw up a new by-law under which a sinking fund can be created. Mr. D. Buttrick reported for the committee investigating ways and means for public sanitation in the center of the town and the committee was requested to supply further particulars at the January meeting. Criticism was offered in regard to the poor lighting of B. & M. R. R. Center station. New members elected at this time were Edw. A. Shirley, H. Roy Waite, Claude A. Palmer.

An Equal Suffrage friend writes: The question of political equality for women is one of the most important questions before the public to-day, and it is the duty of every man and woman to form an intelligent opinion on the subject. The Equal Suffrage Ass'n considers itself fortunate in affording to the citizens of Arlington an opportunity to hear two of their ablest speakers.—Mrs. Henrietta Wells Livermore, president of Yonkers Suffrage Ass'n (numbering over ten thousand members), vice-pres. of the New York State Ass'n, member of New York Campaign Com., and a trustee of Wellesley College, and Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National Suffrage Ass'n. Dr. Shaw is representative of the pioneer movements of America, and her life work is typical of the struggle and achievements through which woman has attained to her present independence. The meeting will be held in the New Town Hall, Tuesday evening, Dec. 8, at 8 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

Arlington District Nursing Association presents its report as follows for the month of November:—

Nursing visits.....	335
Office.....	3
Emergency.....	4
Cases.....	31
New cases.....	19
Surgical.....	2
Medical.....	9
Obstetrical.....	8
Tubercular.....	0
Operations.....	2
Sent to Hospital.....	0
Deaths.....	0

That section of Arlington north-east of Forest street called by the land company developing it "Arlington Terrace," already has streets and sidewalks laid out and partially constructed, while a half dozen or more houses of the inexpensive cottage type have been built. There is also a picturesque and handsome bungalow of the Swiss chalet variety which has been put up. The location is very beautiful, while lying just back of the land offered for sale is the crazy summit of a considerable hill which might well be called "Sunset Rocks," for the view is superb in all directions and at sunset the whole place is aglow with color and light.

The season so far has been remarkably favorable for the contractors building the new High school and progress has been rapid. The foundations are well along toward completion; in the rear window frames are in place and the heavy retaining wall of reinforced concrete on the front is in place. It may be a surprise to some who had been led to believe otherwise, that with the removal of surface earth, in every place where digging for foundation was necessary, only the best sort of gravel for concrete making was found. A bunch of brick layers are busy laying brick on the rear sections of the structure.

The Friday evening performances at Arlington Theatre are proving extremely popular. On that evening a full play is put on, the management selecting one that has been presented by a first class actor or actress, and has had a popular run on the legitimate stage. This same performance is given on the afternoon of each Friday, which is the only matinee, with the exception of Saturday, given at this theatre. This has been arranged especially for ladies and children, to give all who may care to see the pictures a chance to do so. The last two Friday evenings have seen a crowd larger than could have been accommodated, so that many who wanted to gain admittance to the theatre were not able to do so. Try the matinee. It is the same show.

"The Observant Citizen" in his daily column in the Boston Post said a few days ago:—"No wonder they have good ice hockey teams at the Arlington High school! Yesterday morning I walked through Menotomy Rocks Park, at 7 o'clock, and in spite of the early hour, although the ice had been strong enough to bear anyone hardly one day, I found a score of young hockey players chasing the 'puck' under the coaching of a member of the team. And some of those youngsters were barely 7 years of age. Yet they could skate like the wind and their 'form' as they passed the 'puck' to each other, or drove it at the improvised goal, was remarkable. They tell me in that town, that boys learn to skate about as soon as they can walk, and that no gift of skates is ever made without the accompanying hockey stick."

Arlington Equal Suffrage League has arranged a public meeting of more than ordinary moment, in that it will have the rare privilege of the attendance of the national president. This is no less a person than Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, known the world over among suffragists, as well as those opposed to this movement. She will, of course attract a large number to the meeting in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, next Tuesday evening, Dec. 8th, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Henrietta Wells Livermore, a sister of Mrs. E. P. Stickney, who is a bright and popular speaker on suffrage topics, is to answer statements recently made by Mrs. A. H. George, and Miss Katharine Loring, an enthusiast in behalf of the Red Cross, will give an exposition as to how this grand benevolence is carried on.

Arlington Theatre.

The bill at the Arlington Theatre Saturday of this week includes a two-part drama built around the life of a wireless station, entitled "Sparks of Fate." This is a splendid picture, superbly produced by the Essanay Co., with Francis X. Bushman in the leading part. "The Beloved Adventurer" and two fine comedies fill out a program that will especially appeal to the children.

Next Monday and Tuesday, the Keystone comedy will have Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle as the star. It is entitled "Fatty's Debut," and is one of their best offerings.

Wednesday and Thursday's bill always includes "The Million Dollar Mystery" and "Our Mutual Girl." These old favorites are filling the theatre on those nights. Three other sterling pictures are shown.

Coming soon,—"The Master Crackman," in 5 parts.

The Children Entertain.

The entertainment last Saturday afternoon, under the auspices of the Hancock Junior C. E. Society of Lexington, was not only successful in its presentation, for the children did beautifully, but was a very gratifying money earner and, best of all, interested and highly entertained the large audience of adults, including mothers and a few fathers, as well as the older friends of the children and the little ones who participated in the programme. Miss Emma Ostrom Nichols, the superintendent, worked all the members of the Endeavorers, not far from forty, we understand, into the program and this gave each his or her part in sharing the responsibility of making the programme a success.

It was a musical and dramatic performance, in which comedy and opera were cleverly worked up. Miss Nichols being assisted at the piano and in the musical parts by Mrs. George W. Spaulding. The first feature was a little opera, "Little Mothers of the Nations," the little girls being "too cute for anything," in their quaint costumes. The "Making of the Pumpkin Pie" was then given, followed by the bewitching playlet, "The First Thanksgiving." A semi-chorus sang "Music in the Air," illustrated with a tableau, then they sang "The Tin Soldier," and "My Old Kentucky Home." A group of girls in pretty pink and white costumes sang "A Flower Song," after which they mingled with the audience and sold out flowers and home-made candy. Congratulations were in order and they were not lacking. Mrs. Kenniston assisted Miss Nichols in training the children.

Guild Christmas Sale.

On Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons and evenings the ladies of St. John's Guild held a sale in the Episcopal Parish house on Pleasant street, Arlington. Mrs. Charles Rideout, the president of the Guild, hustled to her assistance the ever ready and willing workers of the parish who are instrumental in promoting everything which tends to sustain the parish church. Perhaps the sale, or rather the decorations, were not quite so elaborate as at some of the former ones, nevertheless there was an attractive display of goods on the several tables and booths.

Miss Babson, Miss Hatch, Mesdames Harold Yeames, W. D. Elwell and W. C. Ball were the confectioners and had a goodly stock of home made candy on hand. White aprons, daintily fashioned, made a strong appeal to the ladies and were in charge of Mesdames Arthur E. Norton, Wm. Marsden and C. H. Hoxey. The household table showed a useful line of kitchen aprons and other wares which no well regulated household does without. This department was presided over by Mesdames Mosely, Goldsmith, MacAdam and French. Mrs. J. S. Merve assembled a fine lot of goods for the fancy table and also coupled with this table gentlemen's haberdashery. Her salesladies were Mesdames F. H. Hubbard, C. P. Ladd, W. F. Forbes, G. W. Chickering and Mrs. James Yeames. There was a wide range of things from which to select purchases on this table. The Girls' Friendly Society, chaperoned by Miss Violet Payn-Sills, had a big reception of dolls which big girls and little girls took a strong fancy to. Miss Payn-Sills also showed a salable line of handkerchiefs.

In an adjoining room was the flower department, given loving care by Mrs. English, and here also was the five o'clock tea, served under the direction of Mrs. Frank C. Adams, assisted by Mrs. Robt. W. Pond. The round table invited sociability and was handsomely set, while the evergreens and forest trophies and flowers gave this section of the fair a most inviting appearance. Mrs. Hill's ice cream parlor was here also. On Wednesday evening the supper was a money earner and a popular feature. Mrs. T. O. D. Urquhart, as usual, had the supper in charge and its standard of quality was fully sustained. Her willing workers seconded her efforts in making this feature a success. Miss Winifred Phiney congregated the children about her in the upper hall. She was mistress of the grabs and was never lonesome.

LEXINGTON LOCAL NEWS.

About twenty-five of the friends of Miss Melissa Whiting were entertained at her home at a Thanksgiving party on Nov. 27. The party was matronized by Mrs. T. G. Whiting and Mrs. W. A. Harris. The enjoyment of the evening was contributed to by Mr. Elman Hunter, of Mattapan, who rendered cornet solos, Mr. Newton Riley of Renova, Pa., who gave piano solos, singing by Mr. Chester Ross of Medford, and recitations by Miss Frances Collins of Somerville. Games also formed a part of the evening's entertainment. After a repast was served in the dining room, the party united in saying that it had been an evening most pleasantly spent. Guests were present from Arlington, Medford, Somerville, Dorchester, Mattapan and Lexington.

The illustrated lecture on the Passion Play at Oberammergau was deservedly popular and attracted a much larger attendance than usual at the Sunday evening meeting of the First Parish Fraternity. Rev. J. H. Metcalf, of Medford, very kindly gave the lecture. He has travelled extensively and frequently in European countries and was fully conversant with all the details which are contributory and associated with the presentation of the Passion Play. He also knows what the public are interested in, because he has conducted many parties abroad. He gave one fine idea of the play and some fifty pictures brought the scenes so closely to hand that it was only second to being there in person to hear Mr. Metcalf's most graphic and informing description. It proved an unusually enjoyable and profitable evening.

There was quite an exciting time in the southern district of the town on Sunday at one of the homes on Waltham street, near Waltham town line. A man some thirty-three years old, living with his mother and brother, it is supposed suddenly had an insane fit of behavior and with a shot gun drove his mother and brother from the house and fired on several passing through the street in motors.

Lexington police department was notified and Chief Franks, with officer Maguire, secured the party doing the firing and took him to headquarters and he was summoned into Concord Police Court on Monday on a technical charge. On hearing the case it was decided to send the man to Westboro Asylum for treatment, although his relatives at first had objected to this. It seems that some time ago the unfortunate man, who was in the employ of the railroad, had an injury to his head and it was necessary to place him in an asylum, where he remained until July last, when he was discharged. He evidently had a return of the disorder, which caused his alarming actions on last Sunday.

Mrs. A. B. Tenney, in a few agreeable introductory remarks, daintily placed and alluded to Miss Agnes Reppier, of Philadelphia, who appeared before the ladies of the Outlook Club, Tuesday afternoon, in an essay on "The Courageous Reader." The paper was uplifting with wit, humor and wisdom and was altogether entertaining,—in fact exceptionally so, for it was brim full of brilliant word pictures painted, or rather etched, on the mind with startling distinctness and with such good natured satire that the speaker's thought never failed to carry and register a point. The subject really had little to do with the contents of the paper which rather suggested that which was worthy of acceptance in selecting our reading; yet, on the other hand showing how absurd it is to "prescribe" a course of reading among people of such varied tastes. Her allusion to expurgated books was delicious and her suggestions relating to children and young readers wise and timely. Miss Reppier is of the generation of strength of thought and sound sense with little in common with so much of the present day sloppily sentimental, nonsense and the commonplace—not only in books but in life which books portray and are a reflection as are also the newspapers of the times and the people. If both are not of a high order it is largely because they are a reflection of dominating influences of the times. Miss Reppier was given a flattering reception by those who knew her articles in the "Atlantic Magazine," and made a new friend of every woman in her audience, not to mention the one man who "courageously ventured in."

Theatre Notes.

The highly successful engagement of "The Yellow Ticket" at the Tremont Theatre is drawing to a close. Since the opening performance three weeks ago the appeal of this great play has drawn audiences which have taxed the capacity of the playhouse. "The Yellow Ticket" strikes a responsive note on account of its truthfulness of the deplorable conditions in Russia. Aside from the powerful appeal of the play itself, the excellent cast of the superb cast acting it is proving a double magnet to attract theatregoers. No finer characterization than that offered by Florence Reed has ever been seen here. She pictures the feelings of an innocent and helpless girl battling for her very life against the whole sinister Russian police system, and gains at her first entrance a sympathy which holds the unwavering and heartfelt interest of the spectator throughout. Edwin Arden, as the polished and crafty Aaron Arden, head of the secret police, shares honors with Miss Reed, nor can the striking portrayals of each and every member of the cast be passed by without favorable comment. "The Yellow Ticket" ran for an entire year in New York. The Wednesday and Saturday matinees are especially popular to women and convenient to out of town patrons.

Now in its fourth month, with no indication of an end to its popular run at the Court Theatre, "Peg O' My Heart" is proving that Boston will keep a good play longer than any city other than New York. The story of the play is one that appeals to all classes of theatregoers and its brilliant wit is so genuinely appealing that the bright sallies are appreciated from the top of the house to the boxes. J. Hartley Manners, the author, has made of Peg a character that is lovable, amusing and delightfully frank in her exposition of the snobbery of her aristocratic English relatives. One of Peg's lines, after she has observed some of the priggishness displayed, indicates her opinion of their manners. She says: "They'll not make a lady of me—not if I can help it." Miss Florence Martin is a charming Peg and H. Reeves Smith, who proves to be the man in Peg's romance as Jerry is excellent as her coadjutor in rebellion. Miss Alma Bell, as Ethel, the aristocratic cousin; Miss Lisle Leigh, as Mrs. Chichester, the aunt; Miss Amy Short, as the maid; Mr. Lewis Broughton, the near-villain; Mr. Hassard Short, the son of Peg's aunt; Mr. Frank Burbeck, the attorney, and Mr. Peter Bassett, the butler, complete the excellent supporting company.

The coming of John Drew is always an event of extreme importance to playgoers and the announcement of this distinguished and popular actor's engagement at the Hollis Street Theatre, beginning December 7th, is a very welcome one. Mr. Drew comes in "The Prodigal Husband," a new comedy by Dario Nicodemus and Michael Morton in which he has been playing at the Empire Theatre, in New York, since the beginning of the present season. As the comedy's title suggests, Mr. Drew appears as a husband slightly given over to the life known as "sporting" and the story deals with his career

The Standard Remedy

the safest, most reliable and most popular—for the common ailments of stomach, liver and bowels, is always

BEECHAM'S PILLS

The Largest Sale of Any Medicine in the World Sold everywhere. In boxes, 10c., 25c.

HAROLD F. ROBIE

TEACHER OF THE VIOLIN

23 Water St., Arlington.

Telephone 1034-W. Sdec1w

Pressing, Dyeing, Cleansing, Dyeing

Tailoring that's Satisfactory

Three Reasons Why

Perfect in fit. Honest in value. Faultless in make.

J. D. ROSIE

P. O. Building. Arlington.

Telephone, 632-M.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS,

PROBATE COURT.

MIDDLESEX, SS.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, and all other persons interested in the estate of

CHARLES WILLARD KETTEL, late of Lexington, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by The Boston Safe Deposit and Trust Company, who pray that letters testamentary may be issued to it, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on its official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-third day of December, A. D. 1914, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Lexington MINUTE-MAN, a newspaper published in said County, the latest publication to be on day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing postpaid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McVittie, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this thirtieth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fourteen.

W. E. ROBERTS, Register.

during a period in which his young wife has become estranged from him. In an extremely interesting and sympathetic manner his short-comings are brought home to him by a slip of a girl, Simone, the daughter of his housekeeper. Aside from its laughter-arousing elements the story contains much unexpected tenderness, notably in a delightful scene in which real pathos occasionally interrupts the charming humor. Charles Frohman has surrounded Mr. Drew with a notable supporting company. Miss Martha Hedman appearing as the girl, Simone. Miss Hedman will be recalled as the charming Swedish actress, who two years ago made a most agreeable impression on American playgoers. It is needless to add that "The Prodigal Husband" has been produced with all the customary Frohman care and good taste, the settings being splendid specimens of the scene-builders' art.

"In the Bishop's Carriage," which will be the bill for next week, at Castle Sq. Theatre, is a stirring and powerful "crook" play, with a lesson. It deals with the efforts of William Latimer, a young Philadelphia lawyer, to reclaim a young girl who has fallen into evil courses and become the confederate of thieves. Miss Mary Young will take the part of Nance, and all who know her will be interested to see how the numerous opportunity for subtle characterization are taken advantage of. William Carleton will play Latimer, Dudley Hawley will take the part of the sinister Dorgan.

ARLINGTON REGISTRY for NURSES.

ELIZABETH PECK, R. N.

REGISTRAR.

GRADUATE AND ATTENDANT NURSES.

19 MEDFORD STREET TEL. ARLINGTON 889-M.

Sdec6mos

Buy a Vacuum Cleaner

FOR A

CHRISTMAS PRESENT.

PREMIER ELECTRIC and REEVES.

Write for trial.

J. A. ROBINSON, - 11 Marion Rd., Arlington.

Sdec7w

Gal. Ash Cans, Barrel Trucks, Ash

Sifters All Kinds.

Gal. Garbage Cans, Coal Hods and

Shovels

Oil Heaters. Gas Heaters.

A large variety of above goods at lowest prices.

Busse Chair Seats Easily put on, No Nails.

Dustless Mops and Dust Cloths.

Ready Mixed Paint, Enamels, Varnishes,

Lead, Oil, Glass and Putty.

Brushes and Kalsomine.

See our stock and get prices for quality and Economy before purchasing.

R. W. Shattuck & Co.

Telephone 114. Auto Delivery. 14nov7w

MISS HAZEL F. COYLE,

Teacher of Piano.

Graduate of the Faelien Pianoforte School, 1910.

Pupil of Miss Jessie Davis.

For terms and appointments address

20 Trowbridge St., Arlington, Mass.

Telephone 524-S. S1oct4w

AUTOMOBILE

and Auto Truck repairing, expert bearing